Milk Price Drop Due In City

Other Food Costs Down

Milk prices in Mansfield are expected to drop—possibly as much as two cents per quart—around March 1.

Dairymen confirmed today that the price slash is in prospect. They said it was seasonal, but declined to reveal either the amount or the date.

Meanwhile, a survey of 32 cities by the United Press showed that retail prices on 10 common foods, mainly meats, have fallen sharply in the last month in line with wholesale prices, but many retailers expect to hike prices upward again soon.

Most grocerymen and butchers said housewives were taking full advantage of markdowns by buying "specials." They said homemakers also were buying as little as possible in hopes of further markdowns in the near future.

BREAKFAST CHEAPER

The survey showed that a mother, cooking for a family of three, could cook a breakfast of six eggs and a half-pound of bacon for about seven cents less than it would have cost her a month ago.

If she bought a four-pound rib roast of beef, she could save 46 cents, or almost enough to buy another pound.

Results of the United Press survey are shown by the following table:

	Today	Month Ago
Rib Roast	58.4	69.9
Loin Pork Roast	46.6	50.6
Choice Bacon	59.0	65.6
Pork Chops	58.5	62.7
T-Bone Steak	73.8	81.8
Lamb Chops	80.0	82.2
Best Butter	71.5	74.1
Grade A Eggs	58.0	66.6
Flour (5 Lbs.)	46.2	47.2
Potatoes (10 Lbs.)	54.6	55.2

Cities included in the survey were Milwaukee, Seattle, Kansas City, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Portland, Salt Lake City, Denver, Memphis, Los Angeles, Cleveland, Minneapolis, Des Moines, Dallas, New York, Washington, Boston, St. Louis, Omaha, Indianapolis, Springfield, Ill.; Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, Miami, Columbus, O., and Baltimore.

Pact Nears Completion

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The State department hopes to present to Congress in about one month a power packed North Atlantic Security treaty. It would be re-inforced by a multi-billion dollar military aid proposal for the countries of western Europe.

Secretary of State Acheson, Canadian and European negotiators will enter the final stage of treaty negotiations this week. They plan a conference at the State department Tuesday or Wednesday.

Parallel with this work, the State department is coordinating plans for the arms mutual aid program.

This is expected to require more than a billion dollars in appropriations the first year, to net the Europeans upwards of $3,000,000,000 worth of arms with the help of surplus army stocks now available.

Fire Destroys 12 Buildings

CLEVELAND — (UP) — Two complete investigations of the $1,000,000 fire that swept an entire business block in exclusive Shaker Square Sunday morning were begun today.

Fire Chief James Granger ordered his men to seek the cause of the most disastrous fire in the history of Shaker Heights; and Building Commissioner William Guion ordered his investigators to check reports that a number of persons barely escaped death when fleeing one of the burning buildings because an exit door opened inward.

The fire swept through the Shaker Moreland business block, destroying 12 stores and damaging three others.

State Acts In Slaying

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today ordered the attorney general to take over prosecution of the alleged slayers of Miss Eleanor Gifford at Athens.

The governor also instructed Atty. Gen. Herbert S. Duffy to handle the investigation of the slaying of the church worker.

He acted at the request of the Athens county grand jury.

"During the investigation of the causes that took the life of Eleanor E. Gifford and since that time," the governor said, "certain conditions have developed which in my opinion make it mandatory that the attorney general of Ohio enter the case."

Lausche declined to elaborate on the phrase "certain conditions."

The governor said further:

"Last Saturday night I had a lengthy and satisfactory talk with Mr. Gordon Gray, prosecutor of Athens county.

"Although I have faith in him, a consideration of all the facts and circumstances and the desire that the state's case be developed and presented in its fullest strength convinced me that it was imperative that I order the attorney general of Ohio to enter the case."

Five Spies Being Tried

Plead Innocent Before Commission

MUNICH —(UP)— Four Germans and a Polish displaced person pleaded innocent before a United States Military commission today to charges of gathering information on the American occupation army for a foreign power.

The trial was the second in a series of five in which some 20 defendants will face the court on similar charges.

The commission met in secret last week when it opened the series by sentencing Frantisek Klecka to 20 years at hard labor for spying on American installations for the Czechs. But the commission threw open the doors for the current trial.

The defendants are Roman Knoff, Helmut Schostok, George Kolodyie and Rudolph Bandura —Germans—and Rhedore Sezndielorz.

The prosecution offered in evidence two maps of a troop training area and German industrial plants in Nuernberg and then called as a witness a German policeman who reported finding the maps on Szendielorz last September.

The policeman, Alwin Storm, said the Pole carried an identity card issued in Berlin and a lady's handbag in which he found the maps, sketches of industrial plants and a roll of film.

'Move to Rear' Cry Welcomed By Commuters

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — A subway guard shouted "watch the doors!" A crowded bus squealed to a stop. A trolley motorman besought his passengers to "move to the rear of the car."

For Philadelphia's commuting millions, those were welcome sounds today. The city's 10-day transit strike was over.

The Philadelphia Transportation company's rolling stock began moving last night a few hours after rank and file CIO unionists roared approval of the pay raise that ended their walkout.

PROBE TUCKER FIRM

CHICAGO — (AP) — A federal grand jury opened an investigation today into the activities of Preston Tucker and "certain aspects" of the Tucker corporation.

War Games To Last Until March 19

Mansfielders Serve On USS Missouri

Eight members of Mansfield's Naval Reserve, Division 195, will participate in the navy's biggest peacetime maneuvers in history, starting today Chief Henry F. Warner heads the division.

Scheduled to participate in the Caribbean mock warfare are seven division men, assigned to the USS Missouri.

They are William E. Wheatcraft, seaman recruit, Wooster road; Glenn E. Smith, seaman recruit, of Crestline; Donald E. Mitchell, seaman recruit, also of Crestline; Harold E. Foote, seaman recruit, of 27 North Benton street; Mathew L. Anatra jr., seaman recruit, of Crestline; Robert A. Daugherty, seaman recruit, of 295 Warren road; and Neil J. Boyle, damage controlman third class, of Bucyrus.

Russell M. Christian, engineman, second class, of Shelby, will participate in submarine maneuvers from the Submarine Base at New London, Conn.

Featured in the maneuvers will be the world's first simulated atom bomb attack.

A simulated guided missile attack also will be staged in the war games which will be "fought" in the Caribbean with 120 warships, several hundred planes, and 35,000 men from the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Canadian Army.

BOMBS UNDER COVER

The Navy said that no atom bombs will be exploded, but officials revealed that some guided missiles "may" be used.

The battleship Missouri and the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt moved out of Norfolk, Va., today to join other warships and a fleet of submarines, including some of the snorkel type, for the important war games which will continue until March 19.

The navy said the games will measure what would be the effectiveness of the atom bombs and guided missles, test the latest anti-submarine devices and the effectiveness of navy jet fighting planes operating for the first time for aircraft carriers.

The "major operation" of the maneuvers will be made March 1 upon Vieques island, off Puerto Rico. It will be assumed that Vieques island is part of the "African-Eurasian land mass", strongly fortified by a substantial number of "enemy troops."

Admiral W. H. P. Blandy, chief of the Atlantic fleet, will be in over-all command.

Taylor Spends 'Better' Night

Although Police Lt. William J. Taylor's condition remained "fair" at General hospital today, hospital attendants said the police officer spent a considerably better night last night.

Lt. Taylor was shot twice in the abdomen early Friday evening when he tried to disarm a berserk war veteran, Robert Dilgard at 321 East Fourth street. Dilgard, who then threatened Patrolman Carl F. Berry with a gun, was felled by five shots from Berry's gun. Dilgard died before he could be removed to General hospital.

Private funeral services for Dilgard were held at 1 p. m. today at the Finefrock funeral home.

Bet-Takers, Syndicate In Row

Miami Bookies Irked By Latest Crackdown

MIAMI, Fla.—(UP)—A winter season already shaping up as unique in the history of the Florida playground headed toward an all-time high for the unusual today with rumblings of a "bookies' revolt."

A tight season in terms of money had the luxury trade in a frantic scramble for the tourist dollar. But the odds-on choice for the year's most remarkable news was a report that bookies were threatening to quit a powerful bookmakers "syndicate" because it obeyed the governor of Florida.

Illegal bookmaking in Florida went underground Friday when Gov. Fuller Warren ordered all the law-enforcement agencies at his command—including sheriffs — to arrest all bookies.

Bookies, the governor said, were diverting too much money from the state treasury. Florida gets an eight per cent cut of all money legally bet at the state's 17 horse and dog racing tracks.

The unprecedented order resulted in only two arrests in the most active betting counties — Dade (Miami and Miami Beach) and Broward, bordering on the north — where at least 600 illegal bookies were at the peak of operation.

The "word" had gone out over the wires of the S. and G. syndicate, which controls most of the bookmaking on Miami Beach, by other means — "Don't run today."

CRUSHING BLOW

They haven't run since. Bookies were taking bets furtively everywhere, but the order was a crushing blow to the books which paid up to $50,000 for a bet concession at beachfront luxury hotels.

"What are we paying that kind of dough for?" one bookie asked a reporter. "I'm sick and tired of being told 'nothing doing today' whenever the governor or the sheriff makes a statement. We can do better without those syndicate mugs."

Another bookie drew agreement from others when he proposed a meeting to organize revolt against the syndicate.

Whether such action would produce a new syndicate or result in disciplinary shootings was not known. But the betting was that nothing much would happen this late in the season.

The crackdown that really cracked down highlighted a winter season that found this playground grappling with the paradox of more tourists and less money.

Tourists were flooding in from the north at the greatest rate in the state's history. Highway traffic was up. Tourist attractions throughout Florida were drawing greater numbers than ever before.

But Chambers of Commerce along the southbound highways reported that the visitors were "45 to 70 years old." More farm jalopies from the middlewestern states were counted on the roads. The influx was "small money" which bypassed the luxury hotels and high priced night clubs.

Brideless Groom On Solitary Honeymoon

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Lawrence Tibbett jr., son of the opera star, is in Palm Springs today—where he had planned to spend his honeymoon—but with no bride.

He was supposed to have married socialite Dolores Huteson Wilson Saturday but the wedding was called off at the last minute. There was no official explanation from either family.

Wall Falls; 300 Killed

Breadline Proves To Be Deathline

LISBON — (UP) — Reports from Praia, in the Cape Verde islands, said today that 300 persons were feared dead in the collapse of a huge stone wall on a breadline containing hundreds of indigents.

The wall was 22 feet high and more than 90 feet long. At least 360 persons were injured in addition to those killed. Rescue gangs were reported still digging in the crumbled masonry in search of survivors.

The crowd of poor and indiget lined up shortly after noon yesterday outside the public assistance headquarters of St. Iago island, where a soup kitchen was set up.

The crowd apparently jostled against the ancient wall. It suddenly gave way along its entire length and topped down on the queue.

Eyewitnesses said the wall fell with a roar that was heard throughout the city. Relatives of victims dug in the debris with bare hands, searching for loved ones.

Search Nears Knife Slayer

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Columbus police today had narrowed the search for the slayer of Miss Esther Seibert Mason, 28, to a nearby suburb.

The woman was found brutally slashed to death in a blood-spattered room in the Waldo hotel, Columbus, early Saturday.

Patrolmen said a cab driver told them he picked up a man a few minutes after the murder was discovered in the downtown area and took him to a street intersection in Linden, on the northern outskirts of the capital.

Husband 'Re-Courts' Amnesia Victim

3-Month Marriage In Handholding Stage

SEATTLE — (UP) — Will K. Sugden convinced his brown-haired bride she didn't have to go to work at the Boeing aircraft plant today, but his attempts to woo her again were still in the handholding stage.

Sugden's wife, Hertis, 26, is an amnesia victim. Her memory was blotted out a week ago when a heavy davenport cushion, hurled from the balcony of a motion picture theater, struck her on the head.

She was unconscious two hours. When she came to, she was living back in 1944. She didn't recognize her husband, a balding, 33-year-old bus driver, or his two children by a previous marriage.

She blushed when Sugden told of their romance and marriage last Nov. 23.

"I just can't believe I'm married," she said. "Why I'm a grade A mechanic at the Boeing airplane plant."

Doctors said the cushion, hurled by two 12-year-old boys, had disrupted the association faculties of her mind. They said it would take time and patience, or another shock, to completely restore her memory.

Sugden said he would woo her and win her again.

"She trusts me already," he said. "She lets me hold her hand."

Mrs. Sugden demanded proof of their marriage before she would let her husband take her home. But she recognized nothing when she got there.

"Don't you remember, honey? We used to laugh and hold hands here," Sugden explained.

"I just can't imagine," Mrs. true. But I have no feeling. But I don't like men—I know Sugden replied. "It must be I don't."

'Sweeps' Cry Out Against Dirty Deal

BERLIN—(AP)—Berlin's chimney sweeps went on strike today. They said they are getting a dirty deal.

The chimney sweep in Germany, with his black face, top hat and armful of brushes, is a good luck symbol. Strollers touch him for luck.

Four hundred sweeps met in a beer garden and voted to strike. They included the sweeps from the Soviet sector. This kind of unity in Berlin hasn't been seen for a long time.

They want a pay boost from 55 to 77 marks a week—a raise from the current $16.50 to $23.10. They also want one-fourth of their pay in west marks so they can buy soap. They say Soviet-backed east marks won't buy soap.

Two Charged After Auto 'Tampering'

Wounded Youth's Condition 'Fair'

Two youths found tampering with a car on North Walnut street at the Dickson market about 3 a. m. Saturday were charged today with possession of burglary tools.

One of them, Thomas H. Strickland, 18, of 549 Johns avenue, was charged in municipal court. Strickland, who was shot by police as he fled, is in fair condition in General hospital.

The bullet entered his back at the right side just below the lower rib.

The other youth, Willie Ray Chaffin, of 508 Johns avenue, eluded police, but was apprehended later at his home. Chaffin, who is 17, was charged in juvenile court. A hearing was set for this afternoon.

The youths were discovered by Patrolmen Charles A. Condon and Marion L. Hardesty tampering with the car of Eugene Storck, of 580 Russell road, police said.

Storck had taken the keys with him, but had not locked the car doors.

Police said they found two pliers, a wrench, two screwdrivers, three flashlights, and two pairs of gloves on the youths.

Israeli OK Peace Draft

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL — (AP) — The Israeli cabinet has accepted a draft of a compromise armistice agreement with Egypt, an authoritative source reported last night.

There was no immediate indication whether Cairo officials would also endorse the draft for the Egyptians.

At Rhodes it was reported that a copy of the draft was flown to Cairo today. The Egyptain delegation asked until tomorrow for Egypt to make its position known.

Delegates of the two nations, meeting at Rhodes since Jan. 13 under United Nations auspices, were said there to have accepted the armistice agreement in principle except for one controversial point.

OSR Parolee Shot to Death

CANTON — (INS) — Canton police are holding a suspect and six witnesses today in the fatal shooting of a Mansfield reformatory parolee in an argument over a card game.

Detective Capt. William D. Harrison said Anthony Manos, 24, was shot through the neck in a scuffle at a Canton restaurant yesterday.

Police believe the suspect and Manos argued over a card game and that Manos drew his pistol. Both men fought for the gun and the weapon was discharged during the scuffle, detectives said.

Manos was on parole from the Mansfield reformatory, police said.

LAPAZ — (INS) — The Bolivian government rounded up suspects today under a state of national emergency to smash an alleged plot to overthrow the regime of President Enrique Hertzog.

Dispute Halts Output

Disagree Over Piece Rates

GALION — The Hercules Steel Products company, one of this city's major industries, was idle today after 150 employes walked out following breakdown in negotiations for a new contract.

The workers, members of the International Association of Machinists, AFL, objected to a proposed cut in rates for piece work, a union spokesman said. The company denied a cut was proposed.

Union officials said their contract expired Jan. 1 and they have continued to work until now despite absence of an agreement.

The firm manufactures truck dump bodies, steel vaults, coal unloaders, and cement carriers.

A company official said only a few piece work rates were involved, but union officials countered with the charge the company wanted a 30 per cent reduction on the piece pay rate. The firm denied the charge.

A large lay-off reduced the working force in September and contract negotiations began Nov. 15.

CONFER TWICE

Two conferences were held Saturday in the Hotel Talbott without an agreement being reached. E. P. Monroe, president of the firm, George McClure, executive vice president, and J. H. Saathoff, personnel director, represented the company.

J. J. Murphy, AFL grand lodge representative, joined the local union committee of John Spears, Gordon Hensley, Lowell Hathaway and Richard Klossner in the negotiations.

Office personnel, foremen, supervisors and maintenance workers were allowed to enter the plant. Ten pickets were stationed at the plant.

Union officials met again at 8:30 a. m. after the picket line had been established at the plant.

Jews, Reich Police Clash

BERLIN —(AP)— Berlin Jews and German police battled with fists today when a British sector theater resumed a showing of the British film of Dickens' "Oliver Twist," which Jews charge is anti-semitic.

Demonstrators halted a showing of the film in the same theater last night, but today the British rejected a demand by high-ranking German officials that it be banned.

The demonstrators object to the portrayal of Fagin, a Jew who teaches young boys to steal.

The demonstrators returned to the theater today and tore down signs. Police intervened and fighting broke out. Police clubbed several persons, thought to be Polish Jews. A group of five or six persons smashed the windows of a police radio car.

The Soviet-licensed press splashed headlines saying the British were sponsoring an anti-semitic motion picture.

Thousands Get Holiday

Thousands of Mansfielders will get a holiday tomorrow as public offices, banks and schools close in observance of George Washington's birthday.

The Mansfield post office will operate on a holiday schedule. There will be no regular deliveries, but a window at the office will be open from 7 to 11 a. m. to permit business and industrial firms to get their mail.

The city building, courthouse, state and federal offices will observe the holiday.

City and most county schools will be closed. The Union Rural, Plymouth, and Lucas schools, however, will be in session.

Feedlift Hay Bale Kills Sheepherder

SALT LAKE CITY — (AP) — Western airlift operations claimed a second victim yesterday. A bale of hay dropped from a plane struck and killed a sheepherder.

The victim was identified as Willard Peacock, about 60, of Salina, Utah.

Red Conspiracy In the U.S.A.

Hiss Faces His Accuser In New York Hotel Room

By ROBERT E. STRIPLING
(Edited by Bob Considine)
23rd Article in a Series.

I shall never forget the night at the Commodore hotel in New York when, in an attempt to find the truth in the conflicting testimony about a Soviet spy ring in Washington's government circles, we brought the two leading antagonists face to face.

Neither Alger Hiss, president of Carnegie Foundation for International Peace, nor Whittaker Chambers, a senior editor of Times magazine and a confessed former communist, quite knew the particulars of the meeting the House un-American Activities committee arranged.

Hiss arrived a bit perturbed, accompanied by a friend, Charles Dollard. He was upset for two reasons, he said. He had to contact a friend at the Harvard club, with whom he had a 6 p. m. appointment, and he had just learned of the sudden death by heart attack of his friend Harry Dexter White, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, whom he had questioned four days earlier on the charges of Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley that he had been a part of the stated Red conspiracy.

Hiss took a seat in an easy chair with his back to the front door of the suite. Louis J. Russell, one of our top investigators, went out through the bedroom of the small suite and brought Chambers in through the front door.

Looking right past Hiss, I greeted Chambers. Hiss did not turn around, did not change his expression.

Chambers walked around Hiss and took a seat on the divan near Hiss and somewhat in front of him.

"Will you please stand?" Nixon asked Chambers. "And will you please stand, Mr. Hiss?" They rose and looked at each other silently, the central figures in a case unparalleled in our history.

"May I ask him to speak?" Hiss said, ignoring Chambers.

"My name is Whittaker Chambers," Chambers said in his low voice. Hiss cocked his head, inquisitively, and walked over to Chambers. He is the taller.

"Would you mind opening your mouth wider?" he asked.

"My name is Whittaker Chambers," the man repeated. It seemed like something out of a dream.

Hiss wanted him to speak some more, but before Chambers had a chance he said, "I think he is George Crosley, but I would like to hear him talk a little longer...Are you George Crosley?"

"Not to my knowledge," Chambers answered. "You are Alger Hiss, I believe."

HISS VEHEMENT

"I certainly am!" Hiss said, with a touch of vehemence.

Chambers looked at him for a time. "That was my recollection," he said. Then he reached down and picked up, of all things, a copy of Newsweek Magazine.

Nixon queried Hiss on the subletting of the Hiss apartment to Crosley and his wife and child, and on the exchange of the old Ford. He could not yet make up his mind whether Crosley and Chambers were one and the same. He asked permission to question the man.

"Did you ever go under the name of George Crosley?" he asked Chambers.

"Not to my knowledge," Chambers said.

"Did you ever spend any time with your wife and child in an apartment on Twenty-ninth street in Washington when I was not there because I and my family were living on P street?" Hiss asked.

"I most certainly did," Chambers replied.

"Would you tell me how you reconcile your negative answers with your affirmative answer?" he inquired.

Chambers looked at him steadily. "Very easily, Alger," he said. "I was a communist and you were a communist." Chambers turned to Nixon and continued, "I came to Washington as a communist functionary. I was connected with the underground group of which Mr. Hiss was a member. Mr. Hiss and I became friends. To the best of my knowledge, Mr. Hiss himself suggested that I go there (the apartment) and I accepted gratefully."

Hiss broke in. "Mr. Chairman, I don't need to ask Mr. Whittaker Chambers any more questions. I am now perfectly prepared to identify this man as George Crosley...The ass under the lion's skin is Crosley."

Hiss got up from his chair and stood over Chambers.

"May I say for the record at this point that I would like to invite Mr. Whittaker Chambers to make those same statements out of the presence of this committee, without their being privileged for suit for libel. I challenge you to do it, and I hope you will do it damned quickly."

Then in a white-faced burst of anger he tried to get at Chambers but was stopped by Russell, our investigator.

"I am not going to touch him." He said, wheeling on Russell. "You are touching me."

"I want no distrubance," Russell began.

"Sit down, please," McDowell commanded. "We will suspend testimony for a minute or two.

(TOMORROW: Stripling tells more of the dramatic meeting between Hiss and Chambers, and Mrs. Hiss is heard from.)

Urges Tax Listings

County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe urged today that persons who have personal property to list for tax purposes go to his office as soon as possible. Deadline for listing is April 1.

Wolfe said a total of 800 persons have had their personal property listings prepared at the auditor's office.

He asked that farmers bring a list of their farm items in order to save themselves "considerable time."

Besides the regular tax return, farmers have a new inventory form to fill out. They may also receive help in filling out the farms at the banks in Lucas, Lexington, Bellville and Shiloh, and at the Laser and Hancock office, Shelby.

The deadline time for paying the personal property taxes is April 10.

15 Changes Chalked Up In City Pin Tourney

Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK—(UP)—Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis has settled his libel suit against Look magazine for $10,000 and an article of refutation so once more can put his mind fully to the problem of whether he will make one last title defense in June.

There is an increasing feeling among those in the boxing game that Louis will not fight but continue cleaning-up in exhibitions as long as possible. The Ezzard Charles-Joey Maxim bout at Cincinnati on Feb. 28 may hold the answer.

Maxim, a real spoiler because he is such a cutey that even most winners look bad against him, may push Charles right out of the picture. If so, Louis would virtually be forced to go against Lee Savold. . . . If he doesn't, but continues his theatrical thumping, the N. B. A. should declare the title vacant.

★

The race for pro golf honors this year already has settled down to a contest between Jimmy Demaret and Lloyd Mangrum. Jovial Jimmy is heading the money winners at the moment with Mangrum second and the injured Ben Hogan third. Hogan's auto crash hurts will keep him out of contention.

★

Guy Lombardo, the man of the slow music and the fast boats, is having an airplane fin built on the tail of his Tempo VI in hopes of shattering Gar Wood's 124.9 American mile straightway record. The fin is to steady the boat, which shook badly at 119. Henry Kaiser is building a boat which, on paper, would do 150 m.p.h. and if the craft lives up to its planning. Lombardo will pilot it in the Harmsworth trophy race.

★

California may be breeding the most thoroughbreds but Kentucky still turns out the most stakes winners. Last year the blue grass state had foaled 161 of the stakes winners; California, 28; Maryland, 24; Virginia, 20; New Jersey, eight; Texas, six; Washington, five; Pennsylvania, three; Kansas and Indiana each two, and one each from Florida, Montana, Nebraska and Tennessee.

Next time youse rugged guys hear about somebody studying music, don't sneer. A lad named Winslow Briggs, a Harvard diver, studies music. And he just conquered rheumatic fever, won his freshman football numerals—and was a dive bomber during the war.

Torchy Peden, the former six-day bike racing ace, claims an Australian cycling stunt as one of the "greatest athletic feats of all time."

"Hubert Opperman rode 505 miles in 24 consecutive hours," Torchy said. "If you don't think that's something, try it."

Hughes Gets Two Firsts At Richland

The third week end of competition in the annual city handicap bowling tourney produced 15 charges and new leaders in three of the four divisions.

Only Baku Grotto of the Club league retained its hold. The most notable change saw the defending championship duo of Carl "Farmer" Heilman and Bart Haley take a strangle hold on the doubles lead with a 1269 Lloyd Hughes of the Globe Steel quintet shot into first place in the singles section with 666 and took a big lead in the all-events with 1888.

ONE PIN AHEAD

Hughes nipped the previous singles leader, Homer Bottomley, by one pin while John Waldman shot into third with a 658. Glen Lanning sr. took over fifth with 634 and J. Wiedle was ninth with a 621.

Waldman also took a third in all-events while Chuck McMullen rolled into sixth in that division

Heilman and Haley swept 34 pins ahead of the previous doubles leaders while Bob Gresmer and W. Fisher also got into the act with a second place score of 1246. Don Hipp and John Klish went into fifth while Paul Pifer and Jack McCarrick took eighth and Charles Morrow and B. Hamilton grabbed the tenth spot.

TWO NEW TEAMS

Only two team changes were effected in the second shift Saturday night. The Gorman-Rupp Eagles pulled into sixth and Richland Recreation grabbed 10th. Charles Albrecht paced the Eagles with 624 pins while Earl Turner had 596, Dick Noblet, 575; Cliff Penrose, 576, and Joe Laibach, 553.

Among the honor roll scores over the week end at the Richland Recreation alleys were: H. Derr, Sanitary Pottery, 670; Joe DeYarman, Tinkey Lumber, 636; John Swank, Optimist club, 635. Art Hilborn, Optimist, 628; Joe Scott, Tinkey, 626; Harve Beach, Richland, 618; Gresmer, Richland, 616; Ray Malaska, Richland, 609; Gene Rudolph, Mansfield Business School, 608; John Gilde, National Life, 616, and a pair of 601's by Don Handwork and Harry Koozer of Independent Towel.

Muskingum 5 Is In Choice Spot In Ohio Court Race

By FRITZ HOWELL, Ohio AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS—(AP)—The season isn't over, and Muskingum is in second place in both the Ohio conference and state-wide standings, but don't be surprised if the New Concord crew waltzes away with all the laurels in Ohio's collegiate cage combat.

It all dwindles down to the foes to be met before the curtain falls March 9

In the Ohio conference Ohio Wesleyan is out front with a 10-2 record, and the Muskies are hot on the Bishops' heels with 13-3. Each has two conference games to play. Muskingum has Denison, loser of 13 loop games in a row, and Wooster's up-and-down Scots who have won five of 11 games in the circuit, as its foes.

SMACK DOWN PAIR

Muskingum smacked down two league opponents with over-the-century scores last week, whipping Kenyon 110 to 69, and Ohio Northern 102 to 59, boosting its per-game average to 71.

Wesleyan has Oberlin, third placer in the circuit with a 3-1 record, and Marietta—61-49 victor over the Bishops at Marietta—to push aside. If Wesleyan drops a game and Muskingum wins two, the Muskies are "in."

In the state-wide race it's just about the same. Akron paces the pack with 14-3, while Muskingum has 16-4. The Rubber city crew has three tough ones coming up, however, while Muskingum still has only Denison and Wooster.

The Akrons entertain Duquesne—they lost a 63-43 game to the Dukes earlier—and visit Kent State and Mount Union, the latter the state's best defensive unit.

PLAY 52 TIMES

The Buckeye clubs have 52 games on tap this week, 27 against out-of-state opponents, 11 in the Ohio conference and three in the Mid-American. Last week the Bucks won 14 and lost nine interstate events, giving them 130 wins and 115 losses for the season against the foreigners.

Top game this week is Butler at Cincinnati Wednesday night, with the Mid-American title riding on the result. The Butlers have won seven straight, while Cincinnati has a 6-1 mark after dropping a 75-52 tilt to the Bulldogs at Indianapolis. A Butler win would clinch the laurels for the Hoosiers, but a Bearcat conquest would deadlock the race. And the Cincinnatians are always tough on the Queen City hardwoods.

MONDAY—Ohio State at Indiana, Miami at Xavier, Kent State at Waynesburg, Cumberland at Rio Grande.
TUESDAY—Capital at Heidelberg Wesleyan at Ohio University, Hiram at Mt Union Butler at Cincinnati, Ohio Northern at Wittenberg Youngstown at John Carroll Cedarville at Bluffton Marshall at Xavier
WEDNESDAY—Dayton at Miami, Bowling Green at Toledo Muskingum at Denison, Adrian at Kent State, and Wilberforce U at Kentucky State
THURSDAY—Earlham at Wilmington Kentucky at Xavier Wooster at Oberlin

Beverly Takes Third Spot In Rifle Shooting

COLUMBUS — Mansfield's sharp shooting Beverly Phallen took third place in the junior prone event in the Ohio Open rifle championships here yesterday.

Gene Holmes of Akron won the event with Everett Martin, Roseville, Mich., third. All three scored 299 out of 300 but Holmes put together the longest string of consecutive bulls eyes.

Ervin Brehm of Dearborn, Mich., equalled the state record to take the Ohio Open with a 1,061 score.

The 26-year-old Ford employe also captured the metallic sights-three-position division and finished third in any sights competition.

Leory Klein of Canton placed second with 1,060 and Roy Flowers of Cleveland third with a 1,054.

SETS STATE RECORD

Ruth Temple of Dayton set a state record two years running to re-capture the women's division crown. Her 586 was one point avove her last year's score.

Jean Seibert of Columbus placed second with 584 and Florence Rinehart of Galion came third with 580.

Everett Martin of Roseville, Mich., carried the junior championship out of the state with a 582 score Second was David Fry of Clayton with 581. Jack Hardman of Akron cam in third with 580

American Track Stars to Travel

NEW YORK — (INS) — The track and field committee of the National AAU has voted to send what practically amounts to another Olympic team to Europe next summer.

This squad, dubbed the "Junior Olympic Team", will number 60, only five fewer than the American Olympic team last year. Its members will compete in national championships in Sweden. Great Britain, Belgium, Norway, France, Holland, Czechoslovakia and other countries.

Wants Wildlife Out of Politics

COLUMBUS — (AP) — The League of Ohio sportsmen wants to keep fish, wildlife and forestry administration out of the governor's cabinet

The organization, meeting here, turned thumbs down yesterday on a bill pending in the Ohio senate. The bill would put those departments under a director appointed by the governor.

Instead the league endorsed unified department of natural resources, under an eight-member bipartisan commission which would appoint a director to hold office at its pleasure.

The senate bill already has been approved by the senate conservation committee.

The league said its plan would "keep conservation out of politics" by giving commission members eight-year terms. Hunting and fishing license fees would go for game and fish restoration, matched dollar for dollar with federal funds.

The league voted to keep its opposition to the senate bill in force until "such conditions are complied with."

The bill—known as the Unified Natural Resources bill—originally provided for a natural resources director appointed for two years by the governor. He would oversee seven divisions, including a division of wildlife and a division of forestry.

A provision in the bill which would give the wildlife division free rein and place it outside of the director's authority was later amended by the senate conservation committee. The committee then recommended the bill for senate passage.

The league re-elected James Frank Atwood, Columbus, Ohio conservationist and former state senator, as its president.

Other officers, chosen also without opposition, are Maurice Kocher, Toledo, first vice president; Charles L. Long, Canton, second vice presidnet; Samuel Weirich, Lancaster, Treasurer, and P. M Jones, Ravenna, secretary.

Scattergood Keglers Win Pin Match

Mansfield Scattergood's won two of three games yesterday from Ashland Toggery in a Buckeye league bowling match in Ashland.

The Mansfield quintet notched 857-976-900—2733 while Toggery had 802-879-920—2601. B. Kwiatek, Ashland, was high with 127-213-237—577.

K. Beam was the top Mansfield shooter with 176-190-200—566 while Fred Schnittke had 179-209-176—564. Others: Cliff Penrose, 549; W. Clow, 527, and J. Callender, 527.

★

A pair of 600's came to light in the Mansfield Tire Owl league.

Earl Blackburn chalked up a fine 207-180-236—623 and Chuck McMullon hit 180-208-221—609. John Takos had 171-177-222—570.

Others: Mac Southward, 545; John Ibe, 531; Mike Furry, 528; Joe Leathers, 528, and Tommy Hozmiller, 521.

★

Lead in the Sons of Herman league at the Colony alleys went to Leo Hetler with a 171-194-105—560. A weak third game kept Emmett McIntire off the honor roll. He led off with a 206 and a 203 but fell way down to 145 and a 554.

Others: Jake Streitmater, 546; E. Young, 539; Ray Page, 537; Henry Kathrein, 535, and Ike DeTurk, 528. Bob Mutsch had a single game of 221 and DeTurk came in with 219.

★

Helen Kurek paced the Daughters of Herman league with 156-157-148—461. Others: Anna Schweitzer, 429; Anna Reiter, 423, and Kay Richards, 404.

'Hit and Run' Fox Drive Is Set Tuesday

A holiday 'Hit and Run' fox hunt will be held tomorrow, it has been announced by Harold Snyder, president of the Richland county Fox Hunters association.

The 'quickie' hunt has been scheduled to cover ground which has not been reached in past hunts, and according to Snyder is being made at the request of the farmers.

One of the hunts will start at the corporation limit of Mansfield with hunters meeting at Madison high school parking lot at 8:45 a. m.

The organization has accounted for 36 foxes so far this year, and Snyder pointed to an increased amount of game seen on drives as an indication that the hunts have served their purpose in lowering the number of predators.

"We are not trying to completely eliminate the fox," Snyder asserted. "Instead we wish to restore a normal balance and aid quail and rabbits. We are gradually accomplishing this aim."

He urged all hunters to contact captains or association officials for tickets to the annual banquet scheduled for March 16 at the First Methodist church. State Conservation Commissioner H. A. 'Buck' Rider will be guest speaker.

State Basketball Team at Indiana

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Ohio State's hot and cold running basketball team tonight visits Indiana, and though the Buckeyes are favored anything could happen.

Last week Ohio upset St. Louis, one of the nation's top-ranking teams, and then Saturday dropped a 62-50 decision to Northwestern, one of the Big Nine's weakest outfits.

Butler Ace Looms As Star of Tourney

By CHARLEY STINE

Butler's Bill Allen loomed as the possible individual star of the Richland county tournament with the release today of individual scoring records.

Allen played in too few games to be considered for the scoring championship but held the best percentage mark with a 20-point average for five games. He joined the Bulldogs at the beginning of the second semester.

Best average among the "regulars" was a 15.5 cont by Jack Stephenson of Lucas. Stephenson did not play in the first three games but racked up 170 points after that.

DONNEWIRTH TOPS

Top overall point-getter was Plymouth's Desmond Donnewirth who pushed in 77 field goals and 52 free throws for 206. Donnewirth scored 20 in his last game Friday to beat out Ontario's Howard Sunnucks who had led since the beginning of the season. Sunnucks wound up with 198 points on 76 field goals and 46 free throws.

Sunnucks is the only one of the leaders who will appear in the tournament's opening session tomorrow night. Ontario opposes Union in the 7:30 p. m. opening game while Lexington takes on Shiloh in the nightcap. Both Lexington and Ontario are favored since their teams scored lopsided victories over Shiloh and Union in regular season games.

FIRST WEDNESDAY

Butler and Bellville collide at 7:30 Wednesday while Plymouth and Lucas meet in the second game. Semi-finals will be Thursday between the winners of Tuesday's games and the winners of Wednesday's games. Finals are set for Saturday night.

Tickets for the first two nights are now on sale by all schools. Doors will open at 6 p. m. and all persons who buy advance tickets have been guaranteed a place in the gym.

Season scoring marks of players with 100 or more points:

Trackmen Tie 2 In Nationals

NEW YORK — (AP) — Europeans lifted some of the silverware the National AAU had on display Saturday night but they didn't come near the American track and field records.

In fact, only two of the multitude of athletes who swarmed over the Madison Square garden floor showed even a nodding acquaintance with the records.

Dave Bolen, the Boulder, Colo., bullet, sped 600 years in 1:11.6 to equal the meet mark and Harrison Dillard of Cleveland matched his own record of 7.2 in the 60 yard hurdles. He does it quite regularly.

The rest of the preformances ranged from good to disappointing.

Willy Slykhuis of Holland won the mile as expected and Gaston Reiff of Belgium captured the three mile run.

Clinic Set Again

COLUMBUS — (INS) — The ninth Annual State Track and Field clinic sponsored by the Ohio Association of track coaches was slated today for March 12 at Ohio State university. The clinic was previously scheduled for Feb. 22 but was postponed.

John Palmer Edges Golfing Dentist By 1

HOUSTON, Tex. —(AP)— Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., won the $2,000 jackpot that went with first place in the Houston Open Golf tournament by the skin of his teeth.

He beat the Memphis golfing dentist, Cary Middlecoff, one stroke yesterday when the Tennessee pro went one over par on the 17th hole and missed a chance to tie the match on the 18th by inches.

Palmer toured the 6,710-yard, par 72 Pine Forest country club course in 67 strokes to end with a 71-67—272.

Jim Turnesa, Briar Cliff, N. Y., followed the two leaders with a 274. Close behind was Jim Ferrier, San Francisco, and Marty Furgol, Albuouerque, N. M., at 276. E. J. Harrison of Albuquerque posted a 277 for sixth place and verteran Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., was next with 281.

Lloyd Mangrum, Niles, Ill., finished eighth in the tournament with a 283.

Ohio's Biggest Indoor Sports Arena Opens

CINCINNATI — (AP) — The Cincinnati Garden, which opens with an exhibition hockey game tomorrow night, looks to serve nearly 50,000 customers during its first week of operation.

The $3,000,000 garden, Ohio's largest indoor sports arena, located eight miles from downtown Cincinnati, will feature basketball and boxing, along with hockey, during the opening week splurge.

The Montreal Canadians of the national hockey league will tangle with a group of players already under contract to represent Cincinnati next season in the American league. A crowd of 12,000 is expected for the game.

A 10,000 is anticipated for the Butler-University of Cincinnati basketball game at the garden Wednesday night, and a similar gathering probably will be on hand for the Xavier-University of Kentucky tilt Thursday evening.

Next Monday, Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati and Joey Maxim of Cleveland clash in a 15-round heavyweight boxing bout.

Williams Walks Away With Prize

CHICAGO — (INS) — Bill Williams of Detroit surprised everyone but himself today as he walked away with top honors in the Louis P. Peterson bowling classic in Chicago.

He finished in first place with a score of 1680 last night to win $5,000 of the $64,000 distributed to top bowlers among the original army of 2,304 entrants.

American B Loop Crown Up Tonight

The American league championship basketball contest will share honors with an exhibition tilt tonight at Senior high school.

The exhibition tilt at 7:30 p. m. will pit the newly-formed Mansfield All-Stars against the strong Loudonville Flxible Clippers. The Clippers present one of the strongest teams in the area while the All-Stars number 15 of Mansfield's better league players.

Latest addition to the All-Star roster is Dick Roberts, the clever Richland Beverage southpaw, Roberts has 122 points in City A play this year. The All-Stars will be starting to play themselves into shape for their Friendly House benefit game March 16 against the Cleveland Browns.

Mansfield Tire and Westinghouse collide for the American league title at 8:30. Don Sands, Westinghouse center, is the league leading scorer with 150 points while Trent Shavely tops the Tiremen with 147. The teams tied with Main Cigar Store for first place in the first round while the Tire quintet took six straight in the second round.

In the first round playoff, Westinghouse knocked off the Cigarmen, 44 to 37, and Mansfield Tire, 36 to 35. During the regular season, Tire won both games, 55 to 30 and 45 to 34.

Terry Brennan Decides Against Pro Football

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (INS) — Terry Brennan, who earned four football letters at Notre Dame, will pass up professional football and sign with either Yale or Georgetown university in a coaching capacity.

This was disclosed today when his father, Attorney Martin Brennan, of Milwaukee, said Terry wants to study law.

A. W. Says:

Battle Lines Set In Big 9 Basketball

CHICAGO—(AP)—The battle lines were drawn in the Big Nine championship basketfight today between Illinois and Minnesota.

The campaign, starting out as a struggle among six title contenders, has telescoped into a two-team affair. This developed Saturday when Minnesota smashed defending champion Michigan at Ann Arbor 54-47.

STATE WINS ONE

This left the Gophers geared for the stretch drive with eight wins in 10 league starts. Their losses were 45-44 to Illinois at Champaign (in their only meeting of the season with the Illini) and 48-39 to Ohio State.

Illinois, idle last week, is in the lead with a 7-1 record. Its lone setback was 55-53 on Purdue's home court.

Minnesota has two games to go, entertaining Purdue Saturday and invading Wisconsin for the finale March 5. The Gophers travel to Michigan State tonight for a non-league engagement.

FOUR REMAINING

Illinois has four contests remaining, two of which will be played this week against the circuit's weakest opposition. The Illini are home to Iowa (2-6) tonight and meet Northwestern (2-8) in Chicago stadium Saturday. They face Indiana at Champaign Feb. 28 and wind up at Michigan March 7 in what probably will be the deciding tussle.

Rounding out tonight's schedule Ohio State is at Indiana, Purdue at Michigan and Northwestern at Wisconsin. The Saturday program is completed with Indiana invading Iowa and Michigan traveling to Ohio State.

Class A Teams In Final Week

By HAROLD LISK

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Ohio's high school cagers engage this week in their final play before the start of sectional and district tournaments that lead to the fame and glory of the annual state tourney.

Class A teams, who go directly to sectional and district play, will be winding up their schedules. Class B teams representing schools with enrollment of 150 boys or less, play in their county tournaments, for the most part started last week.

Last week's play in the A ranks resulted in only a slight clearing of an unusually befogged picture. However, Findlay, Hamilton Public, Columbus Central and Toledo Central Catholic came out with victories which stamp them as teams to watch.

WINS 7TH STRAIGHT

Findlay, the defending state champ, won its seventh straight Buckeye Basketball league title by defeating Bowling Green, 45 to 28. Coach Carl Bachman's Trojans have lost only one game this year.

Hamilton, touted as the class of southern Ohio, won its 15th of 16 starts in turning back Middletown for the second time this year. A total of 3,800 fans watched the big blue win 49 to 42, but it required an overtime period. Hamilton's all-state forward Bill Wilks got 22 points.

Columbus Central can win the capital city's championship with a victory over Aquinas tonight. Last week, Central's well-balanced quintet defeated Columbus East, 59 to 51, and inflicted Athens third defeat of the season at Athens by a 47 to 46 count. The Columbus team has won 18 and lost one.

Toledo Central defeated Toledo Waite, 45 to 35, to clinch the Toledo city championship. The Toledo five is stamped as one of the northern Ohio class A giants.

Elsewhere in the A division, Bucyrus won the Northern Ohio league championship in defeating Upper Sandusky, 63 to 38. It gave Al Pesek's five a record of 14 out of 15 games this season.

Delaware Willis assured itself of at least a tie in the Central Buckeye league and Marysville won the Mid-State league title.

Xenia Central, a one-time state champ, won the Miami Valley league with a 35 to 25 conquest of Piqua, the 16th win in 17 starts for the Xenia five.

Among the bigger schools Dover upset Coshocton, 53 to 48; Lancaster, one of the top teams in the southeastern district, trounced Zanesville 55 to 38; Canton South, one of the seeded teams in the Youngstown district, won over Louisville, 51 to 46; Lakewood, a power in the north, had an easy time against Lorain; and Cleveland Central sounded warning of being the top team in that city with a 45 to 30 win over Cleveland Glenville.

In the class B county tourney play last week, Walnut Creek's high-flying Cardinals continued undefeated in the Holmes county tourney.

New Knoxville rebounded from its only loss of the season, to down New Bremen in the Auglaize county play.

Lakeview, which lost its first game of the year to Zansefield by one point after winning 18 straight, continued in the running with a victory in the consolation bracket of the Logan county tourney.

Lockland Wayne, touted as the team to beat for the state class B title, defeated Charleston Garrett, 40 to 39. Lockland has lost only one game all season, a three-point defeat inflicted by Hamilton Public, one of the class A powerhouses.

Unusual features of tourney play occured in Knox county and in Muskingum county. In the former, Bladensburg recorded its first tourney victory in 10 years, while Philo scored the amazing total of 100 points against Meigs at Zanesville.

Baron Sextet Breaks Even

(By International News Service)

The game of "musical chairs" continues today in the American hockey league's western division with Cleveland and Pittsburgh fighting for the runnerup position and St. Louis dropping back into third place.

Goaltender Roger "Beeg Stick Bessette turned in two superb net guarding games for the Cleveland Barons over the weekend to lead his mates to two wins and the second place tie with Pittsburgh.

Bessette edged Buffalo's goalie Connie Dion in a bitter duel, 3-2, Saturday and then hung up his first shutout of the season by blanking the New Haven Ramblers, 3-0, yesterday at New Haven. Bessette left the Rambler's ice amid the cheers of a near capacity house.

Cleveland Brown Cagers Win Two

CLEVELAND — (INS) — The Cleveland Browns, all-America conference football champs, returned today with two wins on out-of-state basketball courts.

The Brownies cage squad defeated the Morehead all-stars at Ashland, Ky., yesterday afternoon, 36-33, and then jumped the Huntington, W. Va., in the evening to whip the West Virginia Steelers, 51-37.

The wins were the fifth and sixth consecutive victories for the Browns.

Signed By Cubs

CHICAGO — (INS) — Ernest Cabral, 24-year-old outfielder-pitcher from Honolulu who had been sought by several major league clubs, has been signed by the Chicago Cubs for their Los Angeles farm team in the Pacific coast league.

Indian Pitcher Says He's Better Now Than In '48

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA , (AP — Don Black says he's healthier now than he was last summer

The Cleveland Indians pitcher, vacationing here with his family before joining the world champions in spring training at Tucson, Ariz. is confident he will make a comeback from the illness which nearly took his life last fall

There was a weak blood vessel near his brain

"It could have burst when I was walking down the street, the doctors tell me," Black said.

It did break when he took a cut at the ball while at bat for the Indians last Sept 13

He was unconscious five weeks and narrowly missed death

Black is 10 pounds over his playing weight as he relaxes on the gulf beaches, following the instructions of Cleveland President Bill Veeck who sent him to Florida to regain his health

He will join the Indians March 1.

More Than Double Cancer Deaths

Heart Disease County's Leading Killer

More persons died from heart disease than from any other cause during 1947 in Richland county, figures prepared by the State Department of Health show.

The number of deaths from heart disease points up the current campaign for funds by the National Heart association. The campaign in Mansfield and Richland county is under the direction of Dr. Robert Wolford.

In asking for contributions to the fund, Dr. Wolford said "deaths from heart disease numbered 233 more than those from the second worst killer—cancer. Death from cancer in Richland county during 1947 totaled 108 as compared with 341 from heart disease."

Quota for the national campaign is $5,000,000; that for Richland county $5 000. Richland county is considered a part of the Central Ohio Heart association, which was given a quota of $100,000.

Funds are being collected in the county by means of the vivid red heart containers placed in business places and other locations throughout Mansfield and county areas.

Two Killed When Tiny Plane Falls

HAMILTON — (UP) — Two men were fatally injured when their light air plane nose-dived to earth shortly after it had taken off from the Hogan airport near here yesterday.

Roger E Christ, 20, of Hamilton, pilot of the plane, was dead when rescuers reached the wreckage. Edward F. Schrader, 20, Lansing, Mich., died shortly afterwards. He suffered a fractured skull and had both legs broken.

Hold Four In Theft

CADIZ—(AP)—Four Steubenville men today were held for grand jury action on charges of stealing a 3,400-pound spool of copper wire from the Hanna Coal company mine at Georgetown. They were Charles Elliott, 31; Gordon Farmer, 49; William Partridge, 49, and Milton Schiff, 51.

The Persians frequently found Bacchus a potent ally in war, falling upon carousing armies and destroying them.

FEPC, Turnpike Measures Come Before Legislature for Action

Super-Road Co-Sponsors See Passage

Fair Employment Hearing Tuesday

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Turnpikes and fair employment practices caught the eye of lawmakers starting another week of work tonight.

Senate Finance committeemen took a final look at a bill designed to give Ohio superroads like the Pennsylvania turnpike.

Chairman William M. Boyd (D-Cuyahoga) and Sen. Ralph A. Winter (R-Medina), cosponsors of the measure, predicted its approval for Senate action.

Amendments provide for a uniform method of construction contract bidding to conform with state practices. They also prevent use of tolls from profitable turnpikes to build those of questionable revenue.

Winter said it guaranteed that turnpikes would be "given" to Ohio promptly after privately-financed bond issues were paid, instead of perpetuating toll roads.

He said he offered the changes at the highway department's suggestion. The highway director and local governments would have to approve road relocations resulting from turnpike building, he added.

House Labor committee FEPC hearings played to packed audiences last week. A full house also is indicated for tomorrow's third hearing.

The plan to create a Fair Employment Practices commission in Ohio is backed by Gov. Frank Lausche, organized labor, church and minority groups.

The House Military affairs committee will hear opponents of a bill to appropriate $750,000,000 for four national guard armories. It would make armory allotments of $250,000 for Middletown, $200,000 for Portsmouth and $150,000 each for Lebanon and Painesville.

The Senate Education committee will hear a proposal for State Education department censorship of television films for commercial purposes. A levy of $3 for each ten minutes of film time is asked.

The House convenes at 7:30 p. m. and the Senate at 8 p. m.

State Acts In Slaying

The governor asserted that William C. Bryant, chief counsel for Attorney General Duffy, would take over the investigation and prosecution. Bryant, he added, already has gone to Athens county.

EX-OSR INMATE HELD

Two men are being held on murder charges in the case and a third man, yet unidentified, is being sought. The pair held are Harry Dodds jr., 20, and Pvt. Grover E. Rawlins, 18, a soldier, both of New Straitsville.

Miss Gifford was beaten to death in her home Jan. 3. Sheriff George Bateman said Dodds, a former inmate of the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield, confessed he attacked the woman when she surprised him and Rawlins in a burglary.

The governor's order requested the attorney general "to proceed with whatever further investigation is necessary, the presentment of the evidence to the grand jury and with the prosecution before a regular jury of any indictments that might be returned."

GE Rejects Wage Boost

Electrical Union Seeking Increase

NEW YORK — (UP) — The General Electric company, the nation's largest electric appliance manufacturer, rejected today the idea of a fourth-round wage increase for its 200,000 employes.

L. R. Boulware, vice-president for labor relations, said the company would resist an increase in wages in order to keep from setting off a new inflationary cycle.

He said a wage boost would be "wrong for the employes and wrong for the country."

The United Electrical Workers (CIO) which represents the General Electric employes announced on Saturday that it would seek a wage increase in forthcoming negotiations with the company.

Last year General Electric announced a plan to resisting the third round wage increase, but after other companies granted such pay hikes, it agreed to an 11 cents an hour increase.

Meanwhile, in Washington, it was reported that new drops in the Department of Labor cost-of-living index were expected to result in a two to three cents an hour wage cut for 350,000 General Motors employes.

The GM employes' salaries were tied to the index in their 1948 contract. The new cost-of-living figures will be released next week.

The electrical union's demands on General Electric were based on an estimated loss of $11.09 a week in purchasing power since January 1945. The union declared the General Electric's weekly wages and risen only 14 per cent in the last three years while the company's prices had gone up 36 per cent and its profits 133 per cent.

Appleseed News Staff Posts Open

Applicants Invited To Visit Meetings

By JANET NEAL and JANISE SMITH

Miss Bernice Henry, editorial staff adviser, at Johnny Appleseed junior high school and J. J. Thoms, business adviser, have announced that any seventh or eighth graders desiring to join either of the staffs next year may visit the staff meetings to get acquainted with the various duties.

Girls' intramural basketball games still are being played. The most recent game found Room 103 eking out a 16-15 victory over Room 204. Nancy Ward still is leading in individual scoring honors.

Herbert Kronenfeld of Room 205 won first prize in the American Legion essay contest while Jim Willard and Nelaura Orr won second prizes.

Two more typing students, Eldon Blair and Tom Hathaway, have earned certificates for typing 30 words per minute and Lydia Knoblauch has reached the 40-word goal.

Stuart H. Cramer, probate judge, presented an interesting talk in an assembly program Tuesday, in observance of Crime Prevention Week.

Dr. Eberhardt, instructor of the English workshop from Ohio State university visited several of the English classes last week.

An unusual assembly, "Student's Sunshine Collies," was presented to the students Thursday. One of the feature acts was "Queenie", the dog with the human brain.

Plans already are getting under way for the ninth grade class dance. Ninth grade class officers are president, Johnny Auer; vice-president, Tom Goodhart; secretary, Nancilee Clark; treasurer, Tom Britain.

Mrs. Lois McGraw's eighth grade literature classes have just finished a unit on China. Current newspapers and magazines of China were collected and read, and there was an exhibit of Chinese dishes, fans, and shoes.

Seventh graders and eighth and ninth grade shop students saw a moving picture, "Mahogany," Wednesday.

Four students, Rodney Funston, Dave Schwein, Sandra Robinson, and Donna Wolverton were able to attend court Wednesday as a project in social science.

Members of the distributive training classes from Senior high school will visit J. J. Thoms' ninth grade business training classes to relate some of their business experiences.

SPEAKS TONIGHT — Dr. Glenn L. Clayton, president of Ashland college, will talk here tonight at the annual father and son dinner of the St. John's church. Dinner will be served in the church parlors at 6:30 p. m. with Charles J. Finfgeld as toastmaster.

3 Crestline Men Fined In Liquor Case

$600 Assessed In Crawford Court

BUCYRUS — Fines, totaling $600, were given three Crestline men at their arraignment Saturday before Common Pleas Judge C. U. Ahl here following their arrests Friday night by a state liquor inspector.

John L. Alexander, 57, of 121½ Railroad street, was fined $200 for possession of illegal liquor and $100 for being the keeper of a place where illegal liquor was sold. He also was given a six month suspended sentence in the Columbus workhouse.

Roosevelt Alexander, 47, was fined $200 and Eugene Higginbotham, 37, was given a $100 fine for illegal sale of liquor.

Stocks Tilt Downward When Demand Slows For 'Weekend'

NEW YORK — (AP) — Demand for stocks slackened today and the price level slowly tilted downward.

Trading got off to an unusually slow start but expanded somewhat as the price level curved downward.

Activity in the exchange was affected by the absence of some of the regulars who took a long weekend in view of the recess tomorrow in observance of Washington's birthday.

One of the widest price swings was taken by Atlantic Gulf and West Indies which moved up around 2½ points at one time.

Smaller gains were posted for Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda Copper, American Can, Air Reduction, and U. S. Gypsum.

On the losing side were Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Union Pacific, Texas company, Barnsdall oil, Pacific Western oil, U. S. Steel Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Chrysler, Phelps Dodge, General Electric, Eastman Kodak, Philip Morris, Radio Corp., International Paper, and Warner Bros.

PILES Are Never "Mild"

DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves; instead, they are likely, if neglected, to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting, predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as: indigestion, billiousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, rain in black and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief—written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

Steel Firm Head OK's Belt Idea

YOUNGSTOWN — (AP) — The proposed 139-mile Ohio conveyor belt system in favored by Frank Purnell, president of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, if it will slim transportation costs into Youngstown.

Purnell said yesterday the belt would not substitute entirely for the proposed Lake Erie-Ohio river canal. He added:

"We are for anything that will cut the staggering costs of transportation that are endangering the future of the Youngstown district."

Man Poses As Guard

Richard A. Irvin, 25, of Wooster, R. D. 5, was placed on six months probation Saturday in Juvenile court when he was found guilty of contributing to the delinquency of three boys, two aged 13 and one, 14.

Court testimony showed that Irvin, who had been drinking posed as a reformatory guard late Friday night and forced the three youths into his car.

The youths were driven around and then taken to their homes after they were searched.

Charges against Howard F. Miller, 21, of 205 West Sixth street, who was with Irvin, were dismissed by the court, when testimony showed that he had attempted to dissuade Irvin from ordering the youths into the car.

Girl Scouts Help Keep Village Clean

Troop Makes Rounds Three Times Weekly

LEXINGTON — Mrs. R. P. Carpenter, leader of Girl Scout Lone Troop 1 here, is proud of the "Help Keep Lexington Clean" campaign results achieved by her charges during the past two years.

Three times weekly a clean-up committee, armed with brooms, dust pans and sticks with nails attached to pick-up waste paper, has kept the town's business area spic and span despite the laxity of some residents who drop waste articles on the ground and sidewalks.

Last fall the girls delivered papers describing the cleanup drive and urged the regulations be followed. The response and never-ceasing efforts of the girls has done much to make Lexington a cleaner place in which to reside.

Receives His Diploma After 18-Year Lapse

ALLIANCE — (INS) — Eighteen years is a long time to get a four-year college degree but Carl Crabbs at Mt. Union just won't give up.

Crabbs, who is aiming at dental school, entered Mt. Union from Bergholz in 1930. The nationwide depression forced him to leave school to become a milkman, then a floorwalker.

In 1941, Crabbs found himself in the Navy for a six-year hitch. When he was discharged, he reentered Mt. Union to major in biology and chemistry.

He's 36, but he's a college graduate.

AMERICAN FAMILY CLOSE-UP
As they go, so goes the nation!

How Bob Norris made the job he couldn't find

● It happened only three months after Robert and Marguerite Norris were married! Bob suffered an accident that changed his whole life. He could no longer do active jobs he knew; he lacked the training for any other! Big odds against Bob—but he refused to be beaten . . .

While Marguerite's job as movie theatre cashier helped keep things going, Bob set out to fit himself for a new job.

After six years of teaching himself accounting, Bob got his first break! He started in a $7-a-week part-time bookkeeping job. Little enough, but it gave him the chance to prove he could work as well as the next man. Meanwhile, he continued his studies at night. Finally he was qualified to hang out his shingle as a public accountant. But could he actually make all his studying pay off . . . ?

"Even then it took midnight oil and teamwork managing our money to get over those tough years," say the Norrises.

To help make ends meet after Bob started out for himself, Marguerite kept a firm hand on expenses. By careful buying, housekeeping, home canning, she still feeds family on only $700 a year. Clothes take $250, taxes on house, $60 a year.

Learning to save for things they want starts young in the Norris family! Albert William, 4, bought a train that way. His dad saved up to buy a car; mother put money aside regularly so that Cora Nancy could have music lessons.

Town teen center is a big interest for both the Norrises. They also teach church school, work for Clarksville recreation drive. And outdoors fun is in their picture too. Bob's job still gives him time for hunting and fishing.

Today the business Bob Norris made for himself provides an income of $6000 a year. But the family still manages their money with care. Making dresses is one way Marguerite helps build up savings for their big goals.

"But life insurance is our most important savings plan," Bob says. He now has a program of planned life insurance protection. It's budgeted at $29.49 a month. For the future he's working with his agent on a retirement program.

What's the secret of Bob's ability to beat the big odds he faced 16 years ago? "If you want to get yourself ahead," he says, "you can!"

Bob has plans for Albert William: Harvard, Class of '65! And Bob himself wants to study for a law degree. "Study pays off," he says.

THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND THEIR AGENTS

The Norrises, like other American families, prove to all of us that the only way we really solve our problems is by our own efforts!

These stories of real families much like yours also show how much more success, how much more happiness is possible when you have peace of mind . . . the sort of peace of mind that comes from wise management of money now, and from knowing that future security has been adequately provided for.

The Life Insurance Companies and their Agents bring you these American family close-ups because what this country amounts to depends upon what happens to its homes!

FEPC, Turnpike Measures Come Before Legislature for Action

Super-Road Co-Sponsors See Passage

Fair Employment Hearing Tuesday

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Turnpikes and fair employment practices caught the eye of lawmakers starting another week of work tonight.

Senate Finance committeemen took a final look at a bill designed to give Ohio superroads like the Pennsylvania turnpike.

Chairman William M. Boyd (D-Cuyahoga) and Sen. Ralph A. Winter (R-Medina), cosponsors of the measure, predicted its approval for Senate action.

Amendments provide for a uniform method of construction contract bidding to conform with state practices. They also prevent use of tolls from profitable turnpikes to build those of questionable revenue.

Winter said it guaranteed that turnpikes would be "given" to Ohio promptly after privately-financed bond issues were paid, instead of perpetuating toll roads.

He said he offered the changes at the highway department's suggestion. The highway director and local governments would have to approve road relocations resulting from turnpike building, he added.

House Labor committee FEPC hearings played to packed audiences last week. A full house also is indicated for tomorrow's third hearing.

The plan to create a Fair Employment Practices commission in Ohio is backed by Gov. Frank Lausche, organized labor, church and minority groups.

The House Military affairs committee will hear opponents of a bill to appropriate $750,000,000 for four national guard armories. It would make armory allotments of $250,000 for Middletown, $200,000 for Portsmouth and $150,000 each for Lebanon and Painesville.

The Senate Education committee will hear a proposal for State Education department censorship of television films for commercial purposes. A levy of $3 for each ten minutes of film time is asked.

The House convenes at 7:30 p. m. and the Senate at 8 p. m.

State Acts In Slaying

The governor asserted that William C. Bryant, chief counsel for Attorney General Duffy, would take over the investigation and prosecution. Bryant, he added, already has gone to Athens county.

EX-OSR INMATE HELD

Two men are being held on murder charges in the case and a third man, yet unidentified, is being sought. The pair held are Harry Dodds jr., 20, and Pvt. Grover E. Rawlins, 18, a soldier, both of New Straitsville

Miss Gifford was beaten to death in her home Jan. 3. Sheriff George Bateman said Dodds, a former inmate of the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield, confessed he attacked the woman when she surprised him and Rawlins in a burglary.

The governor's order requested the attorney general "to proceed with whatever further investigation is necessary, the presentment of the evidence to the grand jury and with the prosecution before a regular jury of any indictments that might be returned."

GE Rejects Wage Boost

Electrical Union Seeking Increase

NEW YORK — (UP) — The General Electric company, the nation's largest electric appliance manufacturer, rejected today the idea of a fourth-round wage increase for its 200,000 employes.

L. R. Boulware, vice-president for labor relations, said the company would resist an increase in wages in order to keep from setting off a new inflationary cycle.

He said a wage boost would be "wrong for the employes and wrong for the country."

The United Electrical Workers (CIO) which represents the General Electric employes announced on Saturday that it would seek a wage increase in forthcoming negotiations with the company.

Last year General Electric announced a plan to resisting the third round wage increase, but after other companies granted such pay hikes, it agreed to an 11 cents an hour increase.

Meanwhile, in Washington, it was reported that new drops in the Department of Labor cost-of-living index were expected to result in a two to three cents an hour wage cut for 350,000 General Motors employes.

The GM employes' salaries were tied to the index in their 1948 contract. The new cost-of-living figures will be released next week.

The electrical union's demands on General Electric were based on an estimated loss of $11 09 a week in purchasing power since January 1945. The union declared the General Electric's weekly wages and risen only 14 per cent in the last three years while the company's prices had gone up 36 per cent and its profits 133 per cent.

Appleseed News Staff Posts Open

Applicants Invited To Visit Meetings

By JANET NEAL and JANISE SMITH

Miss Bernice Henry, editorial staff adviser, at Johnny Appleseed junior high school and J. J. Thoms, business adviser, have announced that any seventh or eighth graders desiring to join either of the staffs next year may visit the staff meetings to get acquainted with the various duties.

Girls' intramural basketball games still are being played. The most recent game found Room 103 eking out a 16-15 victory over Room 204. Nancy Ward still is leading in individual scoring honors.

Herbert Kronenfeld of Room 205 won first prize in the American Legion essay contest while Jim Willard and Nelaura Orr won second prizes.

Two more typing students, Eldon Blair and Tom Hathaway, have earned certificates for typing 30 words per minute and Lydia Knoblauch has reached the 40-word goal.

Stuart H. Cramer, probate judge, presented an interesting talk in an assembly program Tuesday, in observance of Crime Prevention Week.

Dr. Eberhardt, instructor of the English workshop from Ohio State university visited several of the English classes last week.

An unusual assembly, "Student's Sunshine Collies," was presented to the students Thursday. One of the feature acts was "Queenie", the dog with the human brain.

Plans already are getting under way for the ninth grade class dance. Ninth grade class officers are president, Johnny Auer; vice-president, Tom Goodhart; secretary, Nancilee Clark; treasurer, Tom Brittain.

Mrs. Lois McGraw's eighth grade literature classes have just finished a unit on China. Current newspapers and magazines of China were collected and read, and there was an exhibit of Chinese dishes, fans, and shoes.

Seventh graders and eighth and ninth grade shop students saw a moving picture, "Mahogany," Wednesday.

Four students, Rodney Funston, Dave Schwein, Sandra Robinson, and Donna Wolverton were able to attend court Wednesday as a project in social science.

Members of the distributive training classes from Senior high school will visit J. J. Thoms' ninth grade business training classes to relate some of their business experiences.

PILES Are Never "Mild"
DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves; instead, they are likely, if neglected, to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting, predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as: indigestion, billiousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief—written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

Write for reference and booklet "What Your Neighbors Say." Satisfied patients in over 200 cities, towns and villages.

3 Crestline Men Fined In Liquor Case

$600 Assessed In Crawford Court

BUCYRUS — Fines, totaling $600, were given three Crestline men at their arraignment Saturday before Common Pleas Judge C. U. Ahl here following their arrests Friday night by a state liquor inspector.

John L. Alexander, 57, of 121½ Railroad street, was fined $200 for possession of illegal liquor and $100 for being the keeper of a place where illegal liquor was sold. He also was given a six month suspended sentence in the Columbus workhouse.

Roosevelt Alexander, 47, was fined $200 and Eugene Higginbotham, 37, was given a $100 fine for illegal sale of liquor.

Stocks Tilt Downward When Demand Slows For 'Weekend'

NEW YORK — (AP) — Demand for stocks slackened today and the price level slowly tilted downward.

Trading got off to an unusually slow start but expanded somewhat as the price level curved downward.

Activity in the exchange was affected by the absence of some of the regulars who took a long weekend in view of the recess tomorrow in observance of Washington's birthday.

One of the widest price swings was taken by Atlantic Gulf and West Indies which moved up around 2½ points at one time.

Smaller gains were posted for Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda Copper, American Can, Air Reduction, and U. S. Gypsum.

On the losing side were Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Union Pacific, Texas company, Barnsdall oil, Pacific Western oil. U. S. Steel Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Chrysler, Phelps Dodge, General Electric, Eastman Kodak, Philip Morris, Radio Corp., International Paper, and Warner Bros.

Steel Firm Head OK's Belt Idea

YOUNGSTOWN — (AP) — The proposed 139-mile Ohio conveyor belt system in favored by Frank Purnell, president of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, if it will slim transportation costs into Youngstown.

Purnell said yesterday the belt would not substitute entirely for the proposed Lake Erie-Ohio river canal. He added:

"We are for anything that will cut the staggering costs of transportation that are endangering the future of the Youngstown district."

Man Poses As Guard

Richard A. Irvin, 25, of Wooster, R. D. 5, was placed on six months probation Saturday in Juvenile court when he was found guilty of contributing to the delinquency of three boys, two aged 13 and one, 14.

Court testimony showed that Irvin, who had been drinking posed as a reformatory guard late Friday night and forced the three youths into his car.

The youths were driven around and then taken to their homes after they were searched.

Charges against Howard F. Miller, 21, of 205 West Sixth street, who was with Irvin, were dismissed by the court, when testimony showed that he had attempted to dissuade Irvin from ordering the youths into the car.

LONDON — (INS) — British Food Minister John Strachey told the House of Commons that candy rationing in Britain will end on April 24. The rationing has been in effect since the outbreak of the war.

Girl Scouts Help Keep Village Clean

Troop Makes Rounds Three Times Weekly

LEXINGTON — Mrs. R. P. Carpenter, leader of Girl Scout Lone Troop 1 here, is proud of the "Help Keep Lexington Clean" campaign results achieved by her charges during the past two years.

Three times weekly a clean-up committee, armed with brooms, dust pans and sticks with nails attached to pick-up waste paper, has kept the town's business area spic and span despite the laxity of some residents who drop waste articles on the ground and sidewalks.

Last fall the girls delivered papers describing the cleanup drive and urged the regulations be followed. The response and never-ceasing efforts of the girls has done much to make Lexington a cleaner place in which to reside.

PROBE SCHOOL BURGLARY

ASHLAND—An attempted robbery of Hayesville school sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning was being investigated today by the Ashland county sheriff's department.

Receives His Diploma After 18-Year Lapse

ALLIANCE — (INS) — Eighteen years is a long time to get a four-year college degree but Carl Crabbs at Mt. Union just won't give up.

Crabbs, who is aiming at dental school, entered Mt. Union from Bergholz in 1930. The nationwide depression forced him to leave school to become a milkman, then a floorwalker.

In 1941, Crabbs found himself in the Navy for a six-year hitch. When he was discharged, he reentered Mt. Union to major in biology and chemistry.

He's 36, but he's a college graduate.

Accepts Mail Payments Tuesday

Although today was the deadline for paying county real estate taxes without penalty, County Treasurer Charles C. Payne said payments mailed today would be accepted without penalty.

Payne teamed the collection so far as "good," pointing out the office has considerable mail to process and that collectors have not reported their returns yet.

The total collection so far amounts to $977,975. The tax charge is $1,267,391.

AMERICAN FAMILY CLOSE-UP
As they go, so goes the nation!

How Bob Norris made the job he couldn't find

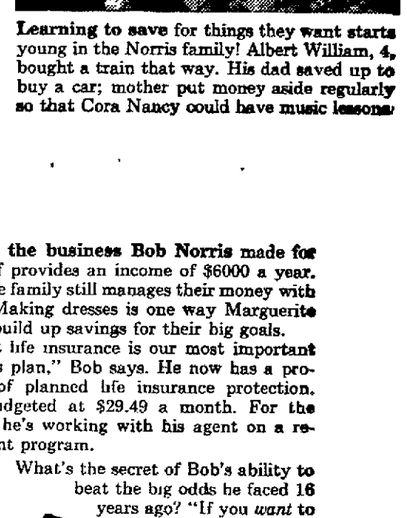
● It happened only three months after Robert and Marguerite Norris were married! Bob suffered an accident that changed his whole life. He could no longer do active jobs he knew; he lacked the training for any other! Big odds against Bob—but he refused to be beaten . . .

While Marguerite's job as movie theatre cashier helped keep things going, Bob set out to fit himself for a new job.

After six years of teaching himself accounting, Bob got his first break! He started in a $7-a-week part-time bookkeeping job. Little enough, but it gave him the chance to prove he could work as well as the next man. Meanwhile, he continued his studies at night. Finally he was qualified to hang out his shingle as a public accountant. But could he actually make all his studying pay off . . . ?

"Even then it took midnight oil and teamwork managing our money to get over those tough years," say the Norrises.

To help make ends meet after Bob started out for himself, Marguerite kept a firm hand on expenses. By careful buying, housekeeping, home canning, she still feeds family on only $700 a year. Clothes take $250, taxes on house, $60 a year.



Learning to save for things they want starts young in the Norris family! Albert William, 4, bought a train that way. His dad saved up to buy a car; mother put money aside regularly so that Cora Nancy could have music lessons.

Town teen center is a big interest for both the Norrises. They also teach church school, work for Clarksville recreation drive. And outdoors fun is in their picture too. Bob's job still gives him time for hunting and fishing.

Today the business Bob Norris made for himself provides an income of $6000 a year. But the family still manages their money with care. Making dresses is one way Marguerite helps build up savings for their big goals.

"But life insurance is our most important savings plan," Bob says. He now has a program of planned life insurance protection. It's budgeted at $29.49 a month. For the future he's working with his agent on a retirement program.

What's the secret of Bob's ability to beat the big odds he faced 16 years ago? "If you want to get yourself ahead," he says, "you can!"

Bob has plans for Albert William: Harvard, Class of '65! And Bob himself wants to study for a law degree. "Study pays off," he says.

THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND THEIR AGENTS

The Norrises, like other American families, prove to all of us that the only way we really solve our problems is by our own efforts!

These stories of real families much like yours also show how much more success, how much more happiness is possible when you have peace of mind . . . the sort of peace of mind that comes from wise management of money now, and from knowing that future security has been adequately provided for.

The Life Insurance Companies and their Agents bring you these American family close-ups because what this country amounts to depends upon what happens to its homes!

One nice thing about an overstock of snowshovels is that the style doesn't change from year to year.

Again it is being pointed out that "we can't afford another war"—but that doesn't seem to be the determining factor.

From the Wall Street Journal comes the deflationary note: "At least two barber shops in New York City's financial district marked down haircuts from 80 cents to 60 cents."

New White House Would Cost Less

WHETHER to build a new White House or to repair the present one at twice the cost appears to be a highly controversial issue in Washington just now. While it is estimated that an entirely new White House could be built at a cost of around $3,000,000 it seems likely that more than twice that amount would have to be spent to rebuild the interior of the present structure, leaving only the outer walls to serve the purposes of historic value.

Readers of early American history will remember that the original White House, first occupied by President John Adams in 1800, was badly damaged August 24, 1814 by British forces which captured Washington. Fire destroyed the interior and part of the walls, necessitating reconstruction that was not completed until 1817.

Various additions have been made to the White House since then, including an air raid shelter built under the East Wing in 1942, for emergency use by President Roosevelt and his family.

Just what effect the damage done to the White House by the British in 1814 may have had in weakening the structure to the extent now disclosed cannot be known but it does seem that Congress should give careful thought to the proposal to erect a completely new building designed to meet modern needs, rather than spending more millions to revamp the old one.

When Misbehavior Is Ignored

THE TRAGIC occurrence of last Friday evening, in which a crazed man was shot to death after seriously wounding a young Mansfield police officer, again serves to warn of the laxity in failing to take note of dangerous characteristics in some of the persons who come under observation but who are permitted freedom, and possession of deadly weapons, without the surveillance necessary to prevent acts of violence.

The record of the man who was killed by police bullets after his wild escapade in which several lives were endangered, was such as to justify suspicion of mental unbalance, and the ease with which he was able to purchase a revolver is a matter that needs be given thought.

Everyone is hoping that Lieut. William J. Taylor, the wounded officer, will recover, and he and his associates in the dangerous mission to which they were called on this occasion are to be commended for their prompt and efficient action in guarding the lives and safety of others.

Aside from the routine of police department activities, it should not be forgotten that men engaged in this line of work are in constant danger, as evidenced not only by this occurrence but also by the bomb explosion in the rear of a South Park street cafe last July 5, when two patrolmen and two city firemen were injured. The mystery surrounding that almost year-old crime has not yet been solved and any information that might lead to arrest and conviction of the bomb-planter should be disclosed to the police.

New Version of Old Swindle

NOT THAT anyone in the Mansfield area is likely to be taken in by such a racket, it is just as well, however, that they learn about the "California Pyramid game," which has enjoyed a considerable run in Detroit the past couple of weeks.

It seems that this is patterned after the old chain-letter swindle, but in this case everyone who puts up $2 is promised a return of $4,096 and solicitation is by telephone instead of through the mail.

The Detroit News comments editorially: "And do the people go for it? They do—in, such numbers that they swamped several telephone exchanges calling prospective suckers!"

So, if by chance the Pyramid swindle, or some variation of it, drifts around this way you'll know about it—and maybe save $2.

Some Highly Paid Baseball Players

JOE DI MAGGIO, who has signed with the New York Yankees for a reported $90,000 salary, becomes the highest-paid player in baseball history, surpassing Babe Ruth's top figure of $80.000. Part of this feat is credited to Joe's glamor and part to the fact that he works for the wealthy Yankees.

The same day's news brought the announcement that Ralph Kiner, the slugger of the Pittsburgh Pirates, has just signed for $30.000. Kiner may not be quite so good as DiMaggio, but there is not the difference between them that their respective salaries would indicate.

What a difference this is from a half century ago! Then the National League, at that time the only major league, limited the maximum pay to $2.400. Only the real stars got that, yet there were not too many complaints.

Apparently the next baseball distinction, in terms of pay, is to be the first hundred thousand dollar player. Who will he be?

A neighborhood youngster recently combined two old words to make a new one which seems to be an improvement on the other two. The word is "troublcations."

Claude Callan comments: "It's a pity there isn't a better way of teaching children than by example. It is terribly straining to set a good example by being good."

Plans to Repeal T-H Law Hit Obstacles

THE "BUM'S RUSH" that the administration and the labor leaders planned to give the Taft-Hartley Act simply didn't happen. The first phase of the struggle has decidedly gone against the opponents of the Act. The prospect for a repeal is much darker than it was two months ago.

In fact, the whole offensive against the work of the Eightieth Congress, reached its climax in the giddy days after election. The purple and gold light which hovered over the November miracle has faded.

In a parliamentary way, we are about where we were toward the end of the Seventy-Ninth Congress. The difference is that the Eightieth Congress passed several basic pieces of legislation. And it is usually harder to repeal than to pass.

Since the Senate Democrats have abandoned their plan to cut short the hearings on a new labor law, they now can look back at the folly of that frustrated strategy.

Speed would have been dangerous to all concerned, especially to the labor leaders, and the Democrats. The sponsors of new legislation would have been held responsible for subsequent events.

Even a mild outbreak of spring strikes would have had regrettable effects on the Truman prestige. The longer a repeal is delayed, the milder the next outbreak of strikes. What we are getting is a "cooling off" period not anticipated in the Truman strategy.

It is probable that we shall get another labor act, and the name "Taft-Hartley" will disappear. That is perhaps just as well for Republican prospects, since the labor boys have been spraying this Taft-Hartley rose with so much smelly stuff that another name would help. But the new act, whatever its name, will probably be more like Taft-Hartley than Wagner.

There would have been a better chance for quick repeal if the labor people had undertaken to give reassurance that there would be no serious round of strikes this spring

But they were confident that they could have the law and the strikes, too. They were intoxicated by the unexpected November success.

* * *

"Name-Calling" Useless.

SOMETIME, the cycle of wage increases must end, and it looks now as if in several industries wage increases are already stopped.

Senator Taft is not going to be injured by name-calling. The United Mine Workers may call him a Lucifer, but the public won't go along with such billingsgate.

Bitterness, recrimination and diatribe are not the means of getting laws passed. The unions would be well advised to use more moderation. Congressmen must not be talked to as if they were mere employers.

The dilemma faced by the administration is that, while it must admit that certain strikes can paralyze the nation and that the President must have some power to bring relief, it can produce no convincing substitute for the Taft-Hartley remedy.

The "implicit power" of the President to get injunctions, which Attorney General Clark suggested, has raised too many questions. It has been hard to answer Taft's question. "If the President has such power and it is necessary, why not keep it in specific terms in the law?" This is common sense speaking in answer to a political gesture designed to satisfy all sides of an issue.

William H. Davis, somewhat to the left of center in labor matters, suggests plant seizures as a compromise. This wartime expedient translated into peacetime conditions would soon become as unpopular with unions as injunctions used to be.

Pepeated plant seizures would enrage all concerned—labor, management and public. It is absurd to imitate socialism in order to gain a power that should be granted directly.

That leaves only the suggestion, once made by Truman, of drafting recalcitrant workers into the Army. That is an antique French device, as fictitious as seizures.

Perhaps, while Governor Dewey and others are talking about the disunity of Republicans, that defeated party is finding new life through Democratic dilemmas.

Frankly Speaking

Veterans and Pensions

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Congress is right on a spot with the bill to give war veterans a pension.

A lot of veterans are going to get sore at a lot of congressmen if the vote is "No."

But if the vote is "Yes," the pension plan will add billions of dollars to the cost of running the government.

Since President Truman's administration is trying to keep down costs, his leaders will try to keep the bill from coming to a vote.

No one is guessing in exact figures how much the plan would cost the country. But the New York Times says the cost ultimately would be "fantastic."

As it stands, the plan, or bill, calls for a pension of $90 a month to all veterans of World Wars I and II when they reach 65

That would be $1.080 a year for each. There are now 18.000.000 veterans.

About 203.500 veterans would be eligible this year, if the bill passed. The pension for them would cost about $129.000.000. members of the House veterans committee say. As more veterans reached 65, the cost would climb into the billions Around here there's talk that if Mr. Truman's leaders are maneuvered into letting the bill come up for a vote, the House, at least, will pass it.

* * *

"Political Handout."

ANY congressman with a yen for re-election—and an eye on the veterans he might anger in his district—might well be expected to hesitate about saying "No."

But one congressman took his stand right away. He's Rep Byrnes, Wisconsin Republican. Stepping before the House, he said:

"This legislation is dishonest. It attempts to deceive the veterans into believing they are getting something for nothing when, as a matter of fact, in 10 years our veterans will be shouldering half the nation's tax burdens including the tremendous increase this bill contemplates."

Byrnes said that if congressmen don't have the courage to point out to veterans in their district the "dangerous fallacies" in the bill, they don't belong in Congress.

When he said that, Democrats and Republicans on both sides of the House applauded him. This might indicate that at voting time the answer would be "No."

But there's no record of who applauds in Congress. There is a record, for all to see, of those who vote, and how they vote.

Certainly not all veterans would be angered at seeing the plan killed. The American Veterans Committee, opposed to general pensions for veterans, told Congress this bill is a "political handout."

But two big organizations want pensions of $60 a month for veterans reaching 60. They're the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

The AVC charge of "political handout" infuriated Rep. John Rankin, Mississippi Democrat, who daddied the bill through the committee which he heads.

It was Rankin's House veterans committee which okayed the bill, after a stormy session, and sent it up to the House for a vote.

But some members of Rankin's own committee got so sore at his tactics that they walked out of the committee, charging that he was "railroading" it through and acting like a dictator.

President Truman, who reaches 65 in May, and Rep. Rankin, who'll be 67 this year, would get the $90 a month pension if the bill became law. Both are veterans of World War I.

Besides the $90-a-month outright pension, the bill would provide other benefits for widows and orphans of veterans.

Alarming Spread of New Dope Craze

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—What appears to be a harmless medicant for clogged-up noses has started a new dope craze that is creeping across the country. The dope is found in ordinary benzedrine inhalers—available for a few cents at most drugstores.

Not only are inmates taking dope from inhalers smuggled into the prisons, according to a prison survey, but the practice is spreading on the outside, particularly among young people.

It was first brought to light by Alabama's Congressman George Grant, who stumbled on to the shocking use of benzedrine inhalers at Kilby Prison, Montgomery, Ala.

In spite of rigid regulations to keep benzedrine inhalers out of the prison, Congressman Grant interviewed prisoners whose skin had turned yellow from using the drug, and who were able to get benzedrine-treated paper torn out of the inhalers and smuggled in to them. One sharpshooting spitball sniper had even flipped the paper wads into the closely guarded death cell.

In most cases the benzedrine-saturated paper was soaked in water, then the mixture was injected into the blood stream with a hypodermic needle, the congressman said.

When the prisoners couldn't borrow or steal a hypodermic needle from the dispensary, they sometimes stuffed bits of benzedrine paper into razor slashes on their arms.

* * *

Practice Spreading.

A SUBSEQUENT survey by Congressman Grant showed that taking dope from benzedrine inhalers started during the war in military disciplinary barracks. After the war the practice spread to civilian penal institutions.

Results of Congressman Grant's survey have not been made public, but here is a cross section of replies from prisons throughout the country.

Warden R. P. Balknew, Georgia state prison —Benzedrine has caused us more trouble within this prison than any other form of contraband. We have had several lose their minds completely by the use of this drug.

Superintendent L. F. Chapman, Florida state prison — In recent years the use by prisoners of those inhalers has been a major curse. The ease with which they can be purchased in any drugstores makes the effort to keep the inhalers out of prison most difficult.

Superintendent O. M. Smith, Washington state penitentiary—We, like every other penal institution in the country, are having a difficult time controlling traffic in this harmful and habit-forming drug. It is definitely established here that the use of benzedrine contributes to the development of perverted practices.

The use of benzedrine as a stimulant by thousands of persons not confined in institutions is also becoming a growing national menace. It is a well-known fact that many college students use the drug as a stimulant during periods of examination.

It is further established that many persons in the entertainment world, who are required to be awake and vivacious during all hours of the night have become addicted to the use of benzedrine.

Warden W. E. Snyder, Sing Sing prison — Regulations prohibit benzedrine inhalers but recently some inmates procured some through improper channels.

Dr. B. L. Steward, Arizona state prison—I feel that if benzedrine inhalers were put on the prescription list 98 per cent of our trouble with inmates would be eliminated.

Warden E. T. Senson, Maryland state penitentiary—While the use of benzedrine inhalers has been prevalent for a number of years it appears, since the war, their use through ingestion by chewing the contents of the inhalers or soaking them in hot water and coffee has become very prevalent by alcoholics and others seeking to effect a cheap drunk. It is more noticeable among ex-servicemen at this time but is rapidly spreading among other people. Sincere druggists recognize this evil and some of them will not stock this medicant.

To check the spreading benzedrine-inhaler dope craze, Congressman Grant is drafting a bill to restrict the sale of benzedrine inhalers except on a doctor's prescription.

Washington Calling

Spying Is Part of Game

By MARQUIS CHILDS

DURING World War II intelligence reports out of enemy Germany were often amazingly accurate. At times the most secret plans of Hitler and the Nazi high command were transmitted to London.

The chief reason was the extraordinary network of professional agents developed by the British intelligence service in Germany through the years.

There was also the fact that many courageous Germans hating the nazis and all they stood for, risked torture and death to try to send out vital information.

As a British cabinet member expressed it to me in a conversation in London during the war:

"Why shouldn't our intelligence out of Germany be good? Some of our agents are the third generation of the same family working for us."

That is to say that German grandfather, father and son were each in turn British agents. That is the achievement of a professional intelligence system which, when all the romantic nonsense is stripped away, is a dirty, mean, secret business that most governments regard as necessary at the present level of human development.

In releasing the hitherto secret Tokyo spy report the department of the army seemed to me to show a basic confusion. Spies are not caught by whipping up public fear and suspicion.

Counter-espionage, the business of blocking and defeating spies planted by an enemy or a potential enemy, is also a highly professional job in which amateurs are likely to do more harm than good.

* * *

Canada's Method.

THE AUTHORS of the Tokyo spy report express admiration for the Canadian spy inquiry and the report that came from the royal commission. But the two documents could hardly be more unlike. The Canadian report consists largely of testimony given by witnesses before the commission, with conclusions stated briefly and unemotionally.

The report from Tokyo made public by the department of the army is based on second-hand and unverified sources, chiefly the statements of convicted German and Japanese spies prior to their execution. It is written in a florid style with highly editorialized comments about official United States policy.

The American Army officers who put together the Tokyo document apparently felt it was their mission to arouse the public in this country to a sense of danger. After the Canadian report, with its grim and unmistakable warning, that hardly seems necessary.

In fact, it has positive dangers. The impulse in many state legislatures is to create local legislative committees to hunt out subversive activities.

Such committees are likely to go on their hunt with even less discrimination and caution than the House un-American activities committee in Washington and thereby they may do great injustices without contributing to the national security in any practical or direct way.

As the Canadian report made abundantly clear, Soviet Russia has a head start in the spy business.

Within the communist parties in each country are fanatical individuals who have transferred their loyalties to Soviet communism and who engage in espionage not for pay but out of devotion to the fountainhead of communism in Moscow.

But even apprehending this type of spy seems to me to be a highly professional undertaking, which should not be entered into by those unable to distinguish between disloyal acts and thoughts which may be outside the accepted and conventional pattern.

As we are fond of proclaiming to the world, freedom of thought and freedom of expression are two qualities that distinguish ours from a totalitarian society.

One Man's Opinion

AT THE Democratic victory dinners Thursday night proper respects will be paid to the departed including Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and the Republican party.

Democrats are very fond of George Washington although they never will understand his reluctance to accept another term.

They don't even have anything special against Dewey for trying to frighten them every four years.

Anyway, loyal party members will pay $100-a-plate for boiled chicken, to hear Mr. Truman explain how he hopes to bring down the cost of living.

The President will be heard on the radio and his remarks will be translated into 14 languages, one of which he hopes will be understood by Congress.

* * *

Not that Congress has given him bad legislation. They just haven't given him ANY!

Dave Boone Says:

THE FBI and federal works agency are probing reports that a lot of war-surplus machinery, equipment and supplies acquired by colleges and schools for free or for very little money were resold in a widespread racket.

* * *

It seems hard to keep racketeering out of most any phase of American life, but we had all hoped our educational institutions had found it smart to go straight.

* * *

Millions of dollars worth of war-surplus property was given to colleges and schools with specific understanding it was to be used by them and never resold. But the charge is that a lot of it has found its way into the market, through "fast-dollar boys" in some educational setups. They may discover they weren't as brainy as they figured.

* * *

Maybe only fly-by-night, catch-as-catch-can schools are involved. I hope so, anyhow.

The Sugar Maple Trees

By CALVIN A. BYERS

THE telephone linemen are at it again. I came by where they had trimmed the top of a maple tree and saw the sap drip, dripping from new wounds. A flicker saw it, too, and drank and drank, his wide mouth open greedily. I was amazed that he could hold so much. Some chickadees were sipping daintily.

It is sugar-making time, but the trees are not tapped this year. Open winters such as this one do not make for the best maple syrup season. Maple groves are old, for the most part, in our locality Many trees are sold for lumber, since the wood is hard and valuable for making furniture and farm machinery.

Forest-grown trees sometimes grow 70 to 120 feet high, a high round crown on a long trunk. Grown in the open, the trees have a short trunk and a compact globular top that produces dense shade. (Four such trees grow along our lawn near the road.)

Every spring they are early red with delicate pointed buds, and in April or May long-stemmed flowers appear which mature into twin-lobed winged seeds.

Some of these lodge on the roadside bank and sprout. There are usually several sizes of little maples there that can be transplanted easily.

The sugar maple is recommended for ornamental purposes along streets and in landscape plantings wherever it grows naturally. Its natural range comprises all the United States as far west as central Dakotas, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas. Thirteen species of maple are native to United States.

The Romans used European maple for pikes and lances as well as for furniture. The botanical name Acer Saccharophorum combines the two ideas of Acer-hard or sharp; and Saccharophorum— sweet sap.

Even now, with their leaves entirely gone, the twigs of our maples are interesting. The sturdy limbs balance each other so well, making slow curves where they merge into the trunk and the patterns against the sky are intriguing.

Our four tall old trees have distinctive individualities. The one farthest west is the leader in everything—first on with leaves, blooms, first off with them The two in the center are closer together, and have shaped each other by the denseness of their combined shade.

The one farthest east is solid gold in autumn, when the brilliant red one is shedding, and the two between are still green.

We are grateful to the man who planted them.

United Presbyterian Church Scene of Nuptials Which United Young Mansfielders.

IN A CLOSED church ceremony Miss Carolyn Jean Poorman became the bride of Jack Adrian Williams Saturday evening at 7:30. The Rev. Charles Shook officiated for the single ring service in the United Presbyterian church before an altar decorated with ferns, palms and two beauty baskets of gladioli. Two seven branch candelabra were placed on each side of the altar.

Miss Poorman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Poorman, 51 South Diamond street, and Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Williams, 641 Maple street.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white crepe dress suit. The jacket was fashioned with a drape effect on each side of variegated colored silk. The skirt was slim and straight. Miss Poorman wore wine accessories with her wedding costume. Her hat had a short face veil.

A bouquet of white shattered carnations with white gardenias centering it was carried by the bride.

Miss Marilyn Baker, friend of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a lavender dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Poorman chose a navy blue crepe dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding and had a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Williams wore a black crepe dress, trimmed in aqua and had black accessories. A white carnation corsage was chosen for Mrs. Williams.

Richard Williams, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake. A bouquet of sweetpeas was placed in front of the cake.

This coming Friday, the couple will leave for a honeymoon in Georgia. Upon their return they will be at home at 927 Benedict street.

Mrs. Williams is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school and employed by the King Insurance agency. Mr. Williams attended Mansfield Senior high school and is an employe of the Perfection Bedspring corporation.

Miss Poorman was honored recently at a nuptial shower by the One-Win-One Sunday school class of the United Presbyterian church. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Courtney, Sherman avenue. The miscellaneous shower was attended by ladies of the church.

Contests were the diversion of the evening with prizes going to Mrs. C. H. Williams, Mrs. John Werznack, Mrs. J. C. Alexander. Favorite recipes for the bride's cook book were made out by the twenty-two guests.

The table was centered with a floral arrangement with Valentine appointments. Crystal candleholders with white tapers were placed on either end of the table. Mrs. Charles Shook presided at the table.

Miss Poorman was presented with a chenille bedspread by the hostess.

Art Study Club Entertained By Guests

Art Study Club members entertained with a guest party in the undercroft of the Grace Episcopal church with 26 of the organization and 23 visitors in attendance. Mrs. Marion Brinkerhoff presided as chairman.

The Friday afternoon meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Jesse E. Smith. Guest speakers were Mrs. A. M. Colby and Mrs. Henry Paulson, who collaborated on the subject, "Sculpture in Natural Setting". "They displayed and explained miniature settings of the Brook-Green gardens in South Carolina.

Tea was served at the close of the program with appointments in keeping with the George Washington Day theme. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Edward Gibson poured.

The next meeting is scheduled for March 4 at the home of Mrs. Ray J. Hammer, Marion avenue road, with Mrs. Clyde Smaltz and Mrs. Arthur Kell assisting.

Shower Fetes Louise Fisk

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held Friday for Miss Louise Fisk, bride-elect of William Gilbert of Mt. Vernon. Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Donald Eggerton and Miss Fisk's mother, Mrs. Robert Fisk, at the latter's home on Johns avenue.

Contests were held and the prizes won were presented to the honoree. Gifts were placed on a table decorated with a green and yellow umbrella.

After the gifts were opened, refreshments were served. Each of the eighteen guests present hemmed tea towls and presened them to the honoree.

The couple will exchange nuptial vows at a formal open church ceremony at the St. Lukes Lutheran church, March 20, with Rev. Herbert Garnes officiating.

Members of the Opti-Mrs. club will be guests of the children of the Richland County Children's Home tomorrow evening for dinner at 6:30 p. m.

Guest Dance Held By University Club

The Mansfield University club held its mid-winter guest dance, Saturday evening with 115 couples in attendance, at the Mansfield-Leland ballroom.

The orchestra of Nels Blocker provided the music for the formal affair and dancing was done from 10 to 2 a.m.

The chairmen of the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Vic Pfizenmayer assisted by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Masquelier.

Among the cocktail parties held prior to the dance were one by Mr. and Mrs. Walter McConnell, 208 Euclid avenue and another at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James R. McConnell, 638 Sloane avenue.

The ballroom was set up in a cabaret fashion with small tables stationed about for refreshments.

AFTER FIVE . . . Cocktail dress in lace-trimmed black silk jersey, designed by Nettie Rosentein.

VICTORIAN MODE . . . Full-skirted gray taffeta gown with apron drapery front and back, cuffed bodice.

Loudonville Girl Becomes Bride Of Lloyd Milligan, Mansfielder

ANNOUNCEMENT is being made of the marriage of Miss Esther Lucille Buzzard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Buzzard, Loudonville, to Lloyd B. Milligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milligan, 473 Howard street. Vows were exchanged on Feb. 12 at 2:30 o'clock in the Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church in Loudonville.

Rev. Lester Dresch officiated and nuptial music was played by Mrs. Raymond Casner. Six branch candelabra and bouquets of white and yellow chrysanthemums formed a pretty background for the double ring closed church service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a two-piece grey wool gaberdine suit, made with long flared jacket and lonk skirt. Her accessories were black and her only jewelry were sapphire and rhinestone earrings and broach. She wore a corsage of red rosebuds tied with matching ribbons.

Miss Marcella Buzzard, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, attired in a medium blue two piece street length suit with pink rosebud corsage and wearing rhinestone earrings and pin.

Mrs. Buzzard wore a royal blue gaberdine dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Milligan chose a medium blue crepe street length dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Serving as best man was Ralph Milligan, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the service a reception was held for 25 guests at the Buzzard home. The serving table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, decorated with a miniature bride and groom. Lighted tapers were placed at each end of the table.

After a brief trip through the northern part of the state the couple returned to reside at the rear of 473 Howard street. For traveling the bride wore a blue gaberdine suit.

The bride attended Loudonville high school and has been employed in the Bank Restaurant in Loudonville. Mr. Milligan was graduated from Mansfield Senior high school and is employed at the Cole Machine Tool and Die company.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The Women's Missionary society of St. Mark's Lutheran church will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lowell Christman, 565 Crescent road. Miss Mayne Swier will be the associate hostess. Mrs. Nellie Gates will present the topic on "Lutheran's in America's Geograghical Fronters".

Miss Brauchler Honored With Nuptial Shower

Miss Norma Brauchler was honored with a linen shower by her attendants Friday in the Mansfield Leland Hotel clubrooms. Mrs. Duke Hergett, matron of honor, Miss Effie Christ and Miss Lee Ann McCullough, bridesmaids, were the hostesses.

The sixteen guests played games as the diversion of the evening. Miss Brauchler, Miss Caroline Kanz, Mrs. Hergett and Mrs. Mary McMullin won the prizes and presented to the honoree.

In order to find her gifts of linen, Miss Brauchler had to hunt through the rooms for the hiding places. As each guest arrived, the hostesses gave them a household gift to present to the honoree during the evening.

Lunch was served at small tables centered with two yellow roses. Two blue wedding bells with the bride-elect's and bridegroom's names engraved on them were the place cards.

Miss Maureen Moore, close friend of the honoree, from Granville, Ohio, was the only out-of-town guest present.

Miss Brauchler and Robert Simpson will exchange nuptial vows Saturday in the First Methodist church with the Rev. Charles W. Stoneburner officiating for the formal open church wedding.

Dorcas Circle Meets at Clauss'

The Dorcas Circle Sunday school class of St. John's church, met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. William Clauss, Sturges avenue. Nine members and a guest, Mrs. Charles Massa, were present.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. John Bernat. Mrs. John McLaughlin read the scripture. Each member answered roll call with a Bible verse.

Mrs. Joseph E. Leibach received congratulations on her birthday, from the class. After the business meeting, the diversion of the evening was playing contests. Prizes were won by Miss Lillian Berry and Mrs. John Bernat. The gift of the month was won by Miss Lillian Berry.

Luncheon was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held March 16 at the home of Mrs. Joseph E. Leibach, 26 Clifton avenue.

WEDNESDAY SESSION

The Disabled American Veterans auxiliary will meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the clubrooms.

Covering the Younger Set

Just Ask Ann

After that long spiel Sunday, here are a few local choice bits for Monday. . . .

* * *

What's this bet between Charles Brown and Tina Taylor? I think I know, and so does the majority of the school. . . . Welcome back, Rudy. Rudy Knapp has returned from his long trip to California. . . . John Ernsberger and Jackie Hurley have been seen together again. . . Grab your partners, kids! Hy Fun council is sponsoring a square dance this Friday night at the Y. . . .

* * *

Ellen Bromfield gave a shower for Shirley Jacobs McKown recently. There were fourteen MHS's girls present. . . . We hear Emily Stevens is going steady with Don Wolfe. . . . Audrey McCoy, Dave Stanton and Jean A. Robinson are the leads for the class play, "Personal Appearance." Giving them all sorts of support will be Jane Van Tilburg, Betty-Erickson, Tina Taylor, Gizella Knefely, Harry McCune, Phil Pendleton and Charles Brown. . . .

* * *

Diana Zerbach was chosen as "sweetheart for 1949." This honor came to her at the "Sweetheart Swing" at the Hy Fun dance. She looked just like a valentine, too. She wore a bright red dress. . . . Bob Ward was chairman of the program and acted as master of ceremonies. Dave Stanton presented her with a heart-shaped box of chocolates and Almaretta Mastandrea sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." It's promised that this will be an annual affair from now on. . . .

* * *

Tina Taylor's the Pepsodent girl since she has had her braces removed. . . . Phyllis Webber and Gene Beal have called it quits. Want to make bets on how long it'll last? . . . Coach Snyder had a beautiful shiner this week. No details disclosed at this moment. . . .

Review of Reviews Has Party

MRS. Robert Barker, 515 Sloane avenue, was hostess to the Review of Reviews members and their guests, Friday evening.

Mrs. Leotta Carrier presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Basil W. Knapp told of her trip to Washington, D. C., and the inauguration of President Truman.

In the absence of Mrs. Howard Fox, who is vacationing in Florida, Mrs. Frank McDowell and Mrs. Hollis Quinland read the paper she had prepared for this meeting. Her subject was "Cartoonists, and How They Shape Our American Life."

Elaborating on this subject she mentioned several Ohio cartoonists, political and historical cartoons and comic strips.

Lunch was served late in the evening.

The March meeting will be a dinner bridge with the husbands of members as guests. The hostess will be Mrs. M. L. Barnett. The date and place of the meeting will be announced later.

MEET WEDNESDAY

The regular meeting of the Christomathean Class of the First Lutheran church will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the parish house. Mrs. C. L. Mitchell and her committee will be in charge.

Viewre Club Meets To Hear Program

The February meeting of the Viewre club was held at the home of Mrs. L. F. Rondell, Arlington avenue, Friday evening, with nine members present.

A dessert lunch was served with St. Patrick's Day appointments. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Clara Rust. Mrs. Mary Weller was in charge of the program and presented a paper entiltled, "Women in Invention".

The March meeting will be held at the home of Miss Vera Smythe, Marion avenue, on a date to be announced.

GOSSIP IN GOTHAM

Two of the town's biggest show houses may soon be the scenes of chorus girl strikes. AGVA is preparing charges of underpayment. . . . "Streetcar" sensation Marlon Brando is mooning over Shirley Levette, a model. . . . Glen Gray, fully recovered from his long illness, is organizing a new band. Hopes to be back in business by next month. . . . Mike Nidorf is coming back from California without Jo Stafford's "Yes."

MGM executives are going daffy trying to settle four separate feuds among their top stars. . . . Senator Warren Magnuson has rekindled the old spark with pretty Carol Parker—and with souvenirs. He celebrated the reunion by giving her a star sapphire ring and a television set. . . . Cass Daley is all but signed for the feminine lead in Ray Golden's revue. "Alive and Kicking."

* * *

HAROLD MINSKY must think business is going to pick up. He's trying to close a deal to operate both the Harem and the Carnival, with floor shows, simultaneously. . . . Latest outbreak in heavy film censoring is in South Africa, where government snippers are scissoring scenes involving guns and daggers as well as sequences that expose too much skin. . . . Pat Coogan, the heiress, became engaged to Frank Heffter Monday night, flashed the ring to a few friends—and called the whole thing off three hours later. . . . Local models are finding the going tough—and getting tough—and getting tougher. So many photographic studios are closing shop. . . . Jacqueline Dalya has become the Gotham expert on the Pyramid Game, Hollywood's sequel to the chain letter craze of unhappy memory. It'll probably sweep this Coast, too.

Pals report Bob Mitchum is "furious" at RKO. They say he wanted to plead guilty to the marijuana charges at the outset of his case, but the studio insisted he retain Giesler to fight it. Result, he goes to jail anyway, he has to pay Geisler, and the shooting of his new picture is interrupted. . . . Senator J. Howard McGrath, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is preparing a headline about his future political activities. . . . Midtown hotels have changed thousands of locks in the past two months. Too many old keys floting around, and too many robberies. . . . King Michael of Rumania and his queen, the former Princess Anne, will remain in Italy indefinitely. Michael's representatives here have dropped their option on an ocean-front estate in Maine. . . . Yvonne Adair of "Lend An Ear" and Sandy Scott, the young character actor, are sniffing orange blossoms.

TOPS: Darryl Zanuck's new one, "Down to the Sea in Ships." . . . Erskine Hawkins RCA-Victor disc, "Corn Bread." . . . Fettucini Alfredo at Leone's—served with a gold spoon, the way Alfredo used to do in Rome. . . . Hank Ladd's drolleries in "Along Fifth Avenue"—and the way Donald Richards sings "Skyscraper Blues" in the same show. . . . Sophie Kerr's story, "Birthright" in the current Cosmopolitan.

Jessica Dragonette has been pacted, as they say in the trade papers, by Columbia records. Her first album will be in response to public demand—a group of religious songs. . . . Allan Smythe is the fellow taking up all Maureen Cannon's time. . . . Equity Library Theatre's forthcoming production of "Pal Joey" has the Sardi Set excited. Doris Dalton will do the Vivienne Segal role and Jane Dulo will have the part June Havoc played in the original. Joel Friend will have the title role.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Tuesday, February 22

A particularly active and lively day is forecast, in which it might be wise to postpone holiday festivities for more ambitious and lucrative considerations While the energies and initiative are quickened, with plans and techniques ready for solid manipulation, in this, higher-ups and capital may be definitely forthcoming. Hard work, sagacious consideration for future returns, may accomplish real objectives.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are assured a year of solid growth, with real increase of abilities, resources and tangible possessions in sight.

A child born on this day is well equipped for a productive, vigorous and solid career, with practical abilities, industry and sound ambitions, winning support from influential places.

Red Conspiracy In the U.S.A.

Hiss Faces His Accuser In New York Hotel Room

By ROBERT E. STRIPLING
(Edited by Bob Considine)
23rd Article in a Series.

I shall never forget the night at the Commodore hotel in New York when, in an attempt to find the truth in the conflicting testimony about a Soviet spy ring in Washington's government circles, we brought the two leading antagonists face to face.

Neither Alger Hiss, president of Carnegie Foundation for International Peace, nor Whittaker Chambers, a senior editor of Times magazine and a confessed former communist, quite knew the particulars of the meeting the House un-American Activities committee arranged.

Hiss arrived a bit perturbed, accompanied by a friend, Charles Dollard. He was upset for two reasons, he said. He had to contact a friend at the Harvard club, with whom he had a 6 p. m. appointment, and he had just learned of the sudden death by heart attack of his friend Harry Dexter White, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, whom he had questioned four days earlier on the charges of Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley that he had been a part of the stated Red conspiracy.

Hiss took a seat in an easy chair with his back to the front door of the suite. Louis J. Russell, one of our top investigators, went out through the bedroom of the small suite and brought Chambers in through the front door.

Looking right past Hiss, I greeted Chambers. Hiss did not turn around, did not change his expression.

Chambers walked around Hiss and took a seat on the divan near Hiss and somewhat in front of him.

"Will you please stand?" Nixon asked Chambers. "And will you please stand, Mr. Hiss?" They rose and looked at each other silently, the central figures in a case unparalleled in our history.

"May I ask him to speak?" Hiss said, ignoring Chambers.

"My name is Whittaker Chambers," Chambers said in his low voice. Hiss cocked his head, inquisitively, and walked over to Chambers. He is the taller.

"Would you mind opening your mouth wider?" he asked.

"My name is Whittaker Chambers," the man repeated. It seemed like something out of a dream.

Hiss wanted him to speak some more, but before Chambers had a chance he said, "I think he is George Crosley, but I would like to hear him talk a little longer...Are you George Crosley?"

"Not to my knowledge," Chambers answered. "You are Alger Hiss, I believe."

HISS VEHEMENT

"I certainly am!" Hiss said, with a touch of vehemence.

Chambers looked at him for a time. "That was my recollection," he said. Then he reached down and picked up, of all things, a copy of Newsweek Magazine.

Nixon queried Hiss on the subletting of the Hiss apartment to Crosley and his wife and child, and on the exchange of the old Ford. He could not yet make up his mind whether Crosley and Chambers were one and the same. He asked permission to question the man.

"Did you ever go under the name of George Crosley?" he asked Chambers.

"Not to my knowledge," Chambers said.

"Did you ever spend any time with your wife and child in an apartment on Twenty-ninth street in Washington when I was not there because I and my family were living on P street?" Hiss asked.

"I most certainly did," Chambers replied.

"Would you tell me how you reconcile your negative answers with your affirmative answer?" he inquired.

Chambers looked at him steadily. "Very easily, Alger," he said. "I was a communist and you were a communist." Chambers turned to Nixon and continued, "I came to Washington as a communist functionary. I was connected with the underground group of which Mr. Hiss was a member. Mr. Hiss and I became friends. To the best of my knowledge, Mr. Hiss himself suggested that I go there (the apartment) and I accepted gratefully."

Hiss broke in. "Mr. Chairman, I don't need to ask Mr. Whittaker Chambers any more questions. I am now perfectly prepared to identify this man as George Crosley. The ass under the lion's skin is Crosley."

Hiss got up from his chair and stood over Chambers.

"May I say for the record at this point that I would like to invite Mr. Whittaker Chambers to make those same statements out of the presence of this committee, without their being privileged for suit for libel. I challenge you to do it, and I hope you will do it damned quickly."

Then in a white-faced burst of anger he tried to get at Chambers but was stopped by Russell, our investigator.

"I am not going to touch him." He said, wheeling on Russell. "You are touching me."

"I want no distrubance," Russell began.

"Sit down, please," McDowell commanded. "We will suspend testimony for a minute or two.

(TOMORROW: Stripling tells more of the dramatic meeting between Hiss and Chambers, and Mrs. Hiss is heard from.)

Urges Tax Listings

County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe urged today that persons who have personal property to list for tax purposes go to his office as soon as possible. Deadline for listing is April 1.

Wolfe said a total of 800 persons have had their personal property listings prepared at the auditor's office.

He asked that farmers bring a list of their farm items in order to save themselves "considerable time."

Besides the regular tax return, farmers have a new inventory form to fill out. They may also receive help in filling out the farms at the banks in Lucas, Lexington, Bellville and Shiloh, and at the Laser and Hancock office, Shelby.

The deadline time for paying the personal property taxes is April 10.

Senate Committee Chided For Failure to Get Koch Indictment

DEAR Mr. W: Just got a note from a friend covering the German courthouse at Munich. Wants you to know that "no step has been taken yet to indict Ilse Koch as the Senate committee suggested months ago, after reprimanding Gen. Clay." . . . Axel Wenner-Gren has a damage suit against him for $100,000 in Supreme Court for alleged breach of contract. As a result, many internationally known people have taken the first boat or plane right outta here. He's at the Ritz-Carlton. . . . Called that fashion copywriter (at that 5th avenue store) to check the talk she will wed a general now overseas. Urged you to not to print his name; said it would "hurt him". She'll let you know when, etc. . . . F. Eberstadt sends such a nice letter he rates getting his side of it in print, although he doesn't want any correction or anything. Wants you to know it isn't true he tried to get G-Man Hoover fired.

Add things that burn me up and knock me cold: The ads in the 52 association affair had these two together: One said: "The Wounded Shall Never Be Forgotten," and under it: "Best Wishes from Tito Schipa." What gall! This admitted Mussolini fascist paid $25 for the ad apparently believing it would help whitewash him. Over Whose Dead Buddy?

Yvonne Adair of "Lend an Ear" and Sandy Scott have tiffed. (Only dawgs stay maaaad!) ...Hedda will be happy to learn the first scene (which twitted her and other coast colyumers) has been omitted from "The Big Knife"...The Jerry Lewises (Martin & Lewis) have been reconciled by his mother, a very sweet lady.

Londoners tell me the Aly Khan-Rita Hayworth romance is nothing compared to the one between Lynn Casey and John Readymoney. London editors wish they could learn more about her.

Did you know that among the 300 experts imported here from Germany the foremost scientist is Werner von Braun? He invented the V-2 rocket...Phony 10s and 20s are around again . Show business is like this: "Carousel" asked backers to take a cut because even if they pack the house they gross $32,000, and the nut is $30,000.

Saw nothing in the papers about Mae West's name being forged (costing her a pretty sum) at a midtown place.

Food prices aren't the only things diving. Several showmen are capitalizing on new shows at 25 per cent of previous budgets.

"The Ivy Green" show is about Dickens. I hear it'll raise eyebrows for those who think of the famed writer as a proper Victorian.

Constitutional Convention Move Should Be Proposed By Dewey

GOVERNOR DEWEY and other crypto-Democrats who have been seduced from the Republican party by selfish longings and a want of integrity really ought to raise a demand for a new constitutional convention to remodel the government of the United States. For 16 years, we have lived under a national government which has no more conformed to the articles and the intention of the Constitution than the human race conforms to the Ten Commandments.

There are several old personal opinions in the libraries which cautiously ventured to suggest he would one day come to approximately this. But the actual process by which we discredited the Constitution without honestly repudiating it was not foreseen, and has not been consciously observed by the present body of citizens.

In fact, Dewey, Stassen, the Herald Tribune and its more and more occasional soulmate, the Daily worker, do not yet realize, or admit that they realize, we have made a mere wall-motto of the Constitution of the United States. Obviously therefore we should hold a constitutional convention and Dewey should be the one to propose it.

He certainly knows, for example the Wagner labor relations act, which he saluted in 1944 as an admirable law, never has been and cannot be administered without sacrifice of either some of the Constitution or some of the act itself.

If it is enforced, the Constitution is violated in several ways, all of them important because there are no unimportant constitutional rights. If it is enforced, an employer is forbidden to speak to an employe on certain subjects and had better not speak to him at all lest it be said that he did discuss matters under verboten even if he did not.

If the Wagner act is enforced only in part there again the Constitution is mocked, for it says in the very preamble that one purpose of the people in adopting these rules was to "establish justice." By justice they meant, and the people since then have understood the Constitution to mean, "equal justice under law." But equality certainly does not exist when "policy" is substituted for indiscriminate enforcement.

★

AS DEWEY KNOWS, "policy" controls and politics pervades the administration of federal justice not only in the federal courts in New Jersey, which are merely more rotten than some others, but everywhere. A few judges still hew to the line, but they may be frustrated in the Supreme Court if it happens that equal justice in a particular case shall offend the bigotries of a majority on a particular day.

We do not live within the Constitution and the time is right to call a convention and argue for a new one, or for the total abandonment of the pretense that we do live within it.

All things must pass. If the Constitution has been outgrown and the people have learned to despise its restraints, the honest way is to point that out and discuss new methods.

The moral fear of those who should make this proposal and the superstition of the people are the strongest guardians the Constitution has today.

State Department 'Flaws' Blasted

Infirmary Population Shows Gain

82 Receive Care At County Home

Population at the Richland county home increased by 10 residents during the past year and now is listed at 82, the annual report approved by county commissioners showed today.

Twenty-four persons were admitted to the home and 14 were released during the year.

Daily per capita cost of maintaining the home was $1.38.

Of the 82 in the Home, 65 are men and 17 are women. Six are recipients of aid for the aged. Three receive aid from relatives or friends. Two receive fixed allowances while the other 71 are county charges.

Three are in the 21-to-50 age group; eight are 51 to 64, while the remaining 71 are 65 or over. Forty-three were born in Richland county, 10 were born in Ohio but outside Richland county, six in other states and 23 in foreign countries.

$47,396 EXPENSE

Expenditures at the county home, including those for capital improvements totaled $47,396 during 1948.

Income, principally from the sale of farm produce and stock, totaled $8,309.

Expenses included $12,315 for salaries, $6,746 for groceries and provisions, $5,277 for fuel and light, $1,412 for clothing, $787 for medicine, $763 for tobacco, $100 for livestock, $3,338 for hay, grain and feed, $2,368 for vehicles and improvements and tools, $1,295 for repairs, and $1,040 for burial expenses.

A total of $9,207 went for capital improvements. Contributions from inmates and their friends totaled $4,281. The sum of $172 was received from other sources with the balance of the money required in running the home coming from the home's appropriation.

The inventory lists the total value of the property at $206,171. This includes the insured values of the buildings housing residents, placed at $150,171, and of farm buildings, placed at $20,000, while the insured value of the equipment for both is $18,000. Included was an estimated value of livestock placed at $10,000 and of the land at $20,000.

Thrown down here . . .

Gail Nicoletti is recovering fast. Her mother is with her.

MIRACULOUS—It's hard to believe 5-year-old Gail Nicoletti is so far on the road to recovery from a 125-foot fall that she can stand up in bed at Greenpoint hospital, New York, and wave to you. Her father threw her over Kosciusko bridge linking Brooklyn and Queens in New York Jan. 7. Her body was crushed, she suffered a fractured skull, internal injuries, loss of speech. Her brother, Arthur, 6, was hurled to his death, and her father followed with a suicide leap. "I'm very good," says Gail.

State President Of P-TA to Talk

Mrs. Keith Weigel, of Cleveland, president of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers will come to Mansfield tomorrow to talk to members of the P-TA council.

Mrs. Weigel has been obtained as the speaker in observance of Founder's Day, celebrated this month among the country's Parent-Teacher associations.

The meeting will be held in Room 207, John Simpson junior high school. It is open to all parents, teachers and the general public.

Death Takes Mrs. Kremer

Mrs. Teresa Kremer, 80, widow of Joseph Kremer, died unexpectedly Sunday night at the Apostolic Christian Home in East Mansfield. Mrs. Kremer apparently had been in good health and her death came unexpectedly. Dr. D. C. Lavender, Richland county coroner, said Mrs. Kremer died as the result of a coronary disease.

Born Jan. 15, 1869, in Austria Hungary, Mrs. Kremer came to Mansfield 44 years ago. She was a member of the Apostolic Christian church.

Surviving are one son, Ben W. Kremer of Mansfield; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild, four step-daughters, Miss Theresa and Miss Lena Kremer of Mansfield, Mrs. Russell Brewer of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman of Crestline; and two stepsons, Joseph Kremer of New York city and William Kremer of Texas.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p. m. Tuesday, conducted by the Apostolic Christian church at the Wappner funeral home. Burial will be in the Lantz cemetery.

Firemen Get 2 False Alarms

A burned off horn wire in an auto and two false alarms kept firemen on the run Sunday afternoon and evening.

At 1:36 p.m. firemen from Central station went to East Third and Foster streets where a horn wire had burned off in a car owned by Simon E. Isley, 150 Purdy street. Firemen said there was no damage.

Stations 2 and 4 answered two false alarms at Third avenue and Orange streets. The first was turned in at 3:40 p.m.; the second at 7:16 p.m.

Veterinarians Meet In City

Members of the North-Central Veterinary Medical association will meet tomorrow at the Henson Veterinary institute, 268 South Main street.

There will be a "small animal" clinic conducted by Dr. Ben Henson of Mansfield and Dr. William Henson, Shelby. Round table discussion and question forum will be led by Dr. A. L. Miller of Ashland. "Fall and Winter Cattle Feedings Problems" will be presented by Dr. George Nikirk of Bucyrus.

Dr. A. G. Duber of Delaware is president of the association and Dr. A. C. Schafstall of New Washington is secretary-treasurer.

Officer to Speak

Lt. D. W. Unkle of the Massillon barracks, state highway patrol, will address the Co-Operative club Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. at the Mansfield-Leland hotel. His subject will be "Traffic Safety." He will tell of his unusual experiences in the patrol.

WINDOW SMASHED

A broken rear window at the North End Auto Supply was discovered at 12:17 a. m. today by police on routine patrol. Spokesmen for the store said there was no burglary involved.

Audiometers Bought For County Schools

The Mansfield Exchange and Co-Operative clubs today donated two audiometers to the Mansfield-Richland county health department to be used in a hearing conservation program.

An audiometer is an electronic device for determining the accuracy of a person's hearing.

Nurses in the health department have been trained by Dr. Carl M. Quick and Dr. Edward H. Beilstein in the use of the machine.

The hearing conservation committee, composed of city-county health officials, school officials, P-TA representatives, the medical profession, and delegates from the Co-Operative and Exchange clubs, will meet this week to decide when and where the audiometers will be used first.

Tentative plans call for the machines to be used first on third grade students throughout the city and county school systems.

The "hearing testers," donated by the two clubs, are of the portable type and will be taken directly to the schools to examine the pupils.

The first test to be made is known as a screening test to determine who has perfect hearing and which students have defects. The findings of the first test determine which boys and girls will receive a more exhaustive examination which shows in scientific units just how much hearing loss a person is suffering from.

An Ohio Health department survey disclosed that six per cent of the students in school are suffering from some hearing deficiency. Over half of these boys and girls can be returned to normal hearing ability through medical treatment or the application of hearing aids, it was said.

Hints Cardinal Drugged By Reds

VATICAN CITY — (AP) — Pope Pius XII told 250,000 cheering Italians yesterday the imprisonment of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in communist-ruled Hungary was religious "persecution" by a "totalitarian and anti-religious" government.

He hinted strongly that the Hungarian government, by some secret means, had wrung from Cardinal Mindszenty a confession of crimes of which the primate was innocent.

DEATH RULED SUICIDE

NEWARK—(AP)—Coroner J. H. Pollock yesterday ruled a suicide the death of Robert Norris, 33-year-old Newark fireman. Norris , on sick leave from the fire department, was found hanged in his garage.

Fog Lights, Coat Stolen

Theft of a basketball, fog lights and a woman's fur coat were reported to police yesterday.

Fred Miller jr., 55 Glenwood boulevard, reported that a basketball was taken from the rear of his home and that a basketball hoop fastened to the garage, were stolen from his home last Thursday night.

Charles Duff, 209 Euclid avenue, told police he discovered his fog lights missing from his auto yesterday. Duff said he believed the lights were stolen while the car was parked in front of an East Fifth street service station last Tuesday night.

Theft of a fur coat, valued at $75, from the front room at 261 North Main street, was reported to police by Miss Rosie Stevens. Miss Stevens said she came home Wednesday and placed the coat on the davenport and then went to the rear of the house. The coat was gone when she returend an hour later, she said. The front door at the home reportedly was unlocked.

Elias Named By New Firm

Manages Pump Concern In City

Frank Elias, former merchandise manager with the Barnes Manufacturing company, has been appointed vice president and general manager of the Johnston Aquamatic company, a new Mansfield firm, it was announced today by T. W. Simmons jr., of Los Angeles, president of the company.

Headquarters have been established at 577 North Main street. The company manufactures and distributes domestic water systems, deep and shallow well pumps and similar equipment, Elias said.

Assembling at the plant has been going on for the past several weeks, Elias said. There are five employes at the local plant and 25 field men throughout the country, he said.

Later, as the company increases its manufacture and distribution, it expects to add more personnel.

For the past five years, Elias had been with the Barnes company and prior to that was affiliated for several years with the Westinghouse company here. He is chairman of the Red Cross chapter of Richland county and active in civic affairs.

Getting Mad Costs Girl $50 and Costs

It cost Miss Edna Sprague, 18, 217 North Diamond street, $50 and costs to get angry in a Park avenue east tavern.

Miss Sprague objected to an order to leave the Subway Inn, 238 Park avenue east, and proceeded to smash a pie case and a dollar's worth of pies and damage a table, evidence in municipal court showed today. She used a drinking fountain spigot as a weapon.

Judge H. H. Schettler fined her $50 and costs for malicious destruction of property, suspending $30 of the fine on the condition that she pay for damage she caused at the tavern.

Waitress Edna Clark said she asked Miss Sprague to leave because she objected to the language she was using.

Man, 66, Found Lying In Street

William Windsor, about 66, believed to have suffered a stroke while walking on North Main street early today, was admitted to General hospital after he was found lying between two cars in front of 290 North Main at 7:10 a.m.

Windsor, reported in "critical" condition, was found by Lt. Maj. Richard L. Gutterman of the Volunteers of America. Police said Windsor was unable to move or to talk. He is a resident of the Creamer hotel.

Hoover Flays Sprawling

Urges Truman To Hold Reins

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Hoover commission today urged a top-to-bottom overhauling of the State department to remove "flaws" in the handling of the nation's foreign relations.

The commission laid down a list of 22 recommendations in a report which said the reins over this country's dealings abroad—now spread out all over the government—should be concentrated squarely in President Truman's hands.

While some of the group's suggestions were directed to Congress, most were aimed straight at the State department. That agency, the commission declared, has fallen to "low esteem" with lawmakers, the press, the public and many of its own officials.

The main reason for this, the report said, is the department's postwar work overload.

The 12-man bi-partisan commission on government organization is headed by Former President Herbert Hoover.

As vice-chairman, Secretary of State Acheson helped draft the recommendations for improving the department he came to head.

LISTS PROPOSALS

Those proposals included:

1. Letting the department drop such operating functions as handling passport visas, munitions control, aviation and shipping, so it can concentrate on policy matters.

2. Providing the secretary with a larger top-level staff to help lift the "intolerable burden" he and his Undersecretary bear. There should be two new deputy undersecretaries, eight assistant secretaries instead of six, and a general reshuffling of functions, the report said.

3. Building up a team of expert negotiators to represent the United States at international conferences — an arrangement already started with the appointment of Philip C. Jessup as a special ambassador. The top officials, the commission said, "are needed in Washington."

4. Gradual merging of the foreign service and regular State department establishment into a single foreign affairs service, with all employes obligated to serve either at home or overseas.

5. Giving such responsibility to ambassadors and ministers abroad that there could be no conflict with other American representatives on the scene.

Along with these recommendations, the group turned thumbs down for the present on any move to transfer the military governments of Europe and Japan to civilian control.

The commission submitted its recommendations without any estimate of possible immediate savings, noting that postwar readjustments already have cut down State department personnel by 26 per cent.

Gun Carrier Bound Over

Joseph Davis, 39, of 161 West Sixth street, was bound to the grand jury today on $1,000 bond after he pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons. He was taken before Municipal Court Judge H. H. Schettler.

Davis was arrested at 12:30 a.m. Sunday on North Diamond street by Patrolman Lawrence Harper when the officer investigated shooting in an alley between Diamond street and North Franklin avenue.

Patrolman Harper said he was walking north on North Diamond street when he heard several shots fired in an alley. He said he saw Davis leaving the alley and turn north. A search of Davis disclosed a .38 calibre pistol and 10 unexploded shells in his left coat pocket, police said.

Harper is being held in county jail, officers said.

Senate Committee Chided For Failure to Get Koch Indictment

DEAR Mr. W: Just got a note from a friend covering the German courthouse at Munich. Wants you to know that "no step has been taken yet to indict Ilse Koch as the Senate committee suggested months ago, after reprimanding Gen. Clay." . . . Axel Wenner-Gren has a damage suit against him for $100,000 in Supreme Court for alleged breach of contract. As a result, many internationally known people have taken the first boat or plane right outta here. He's at the Ritz-Carlton. . . . Called that fashion copywriter (at that 5th avenue store) to check the talk she will wed a general now overseas. Urged you to not to print his name; said it would "hurt him". She'll let you know when, etc. . . . F. Eberstadt sends such a nice letter he rates getting his side of it in print, although he doesn't want any correction or anything. Wants you to know it isn't true he tried to get G-Man Hoover fired.

Constitutional Convention Move Should Be Proposed By Dewey

GOVERNOR DEWEY and other crypto-Democrats who have been seduced from the Republican party by selfish longings and a want of integrity really ought to raise a demand for a new constitutional convention to remodel the government of the United States. For 16 years, we have lived under a national government which has no more conformed to the articles and the intention of the Constitution than the human race conforms to the Ten Commandments.

There are several old personal opinions in the libraries which cautiously ventured to suggest he would one day come to approximately this. But the actual process by which we discredited the Constitution without honestly repudiating it was not foreseen, and has not been consciously observed by the present body of citizens.

In fact, Dewey, Stassen, the Herald Tribune and its more and more occasional soulmate, the Daily worker, do not yet realize, or admit that they realize, we have made a mere wall-motto of the Constitution of the United States. Obviously therefore we should hold a constitutional convention and Dewey should be the one to propose it.

He certainly knows, for example the Wagner labor relations act, which he saluted in 1944 as an admirable law, never has been and cannot be administered without sacrifice of either some of the Constitution or some of the act itself.

If it is enforced, the Constitution is violated in several ways, all of them important because there are no unimportant constitutional rights. If it is enforced, an employer is forbidden to speak to an employe on certain subjects and had better not speak to him at all lest it be said that he did discuss matters under verboten even if he did not.

If the Wagner act is enforced only in part there again the Constitution is mocked, for it says in the very preamble that one purpose of the people in adopting these rules was to "establish justice." By justice they meant, and the people since then have understood the Constitution to mean, "equal justice under law." But equality certainly does not exist when "policy" is substituted for indiscriminate enforcement.

★

AS DEWEY KNOWS, "policy" controls and politics pervades the administration of federal justice not only in the federal courts in New Jersey, which are merely more rotten than some others, but everywhere. A few judges still hew to the line, but they may be frustrated in the Supreme Court if it happens that equal justice in a particular case shall offend the bigotries of a majority on a particular day.

We do not live within the Constitution and the time is right to call a convention and argue for a new one, or for the total abandonment of the pretense that we do live within it.

All things must pass. If the Constitution has been outgrown and the people have learned to despise its restraints, the honest way is to point that out and discuss new methods.

The moral fear of those who should make this proposal and the superstition of the people are the strongest guardians the Constitution has today.

State Department 'Flaws' Blasted

Infirmary Population Shows Gain

82 Receive Care At County Home

Population at the Richland county home increased by 10 residents during the past year and now is listed at 82, the annual report approved by county commissioners showed today.

Twenty-four persons were admitted to the home and 14 were released during the year.

Daily per capita cost of maintaining the home was $1.38.

Of the 82 in the Home, 65 are men and 17 are women. Six are recipients of aid for the aged. Three receive aid from relatives or friends. Two receive fixed allowances while the other 71 are county charges.

Three are in the 21-to-50 age group; eight are 51 to 64, while the remaining 71 are 65 or over. Forty-three were born in Richland county, 10 were born in Ohio but outside Richland county, six in other states and 23 in foreign countries.

$47,396 EXPENSE

Expenditures at the county home, including those for capital improvements totaled $47,396 during 1948.

Income, principally from the sale of farm produce and stock, totaled $8,309.

Expenses included $12,315 for salaries, $6,746 for groceries and provisions, $5,277 for fuel and light, $1,412 for clothing, $787 for medicine, $763 for tobacco, $100 for livestock, $3,338 for hay, grain and feed, $2,368 for vehicles and improvements and tools, $1,295 for repairs, and $1,040 for burial expenses.

A total of $9,207 went for capital improvements. Contributions from inmates and their friends totaled $4,281. The sum of $172 was received from other sources with the balance of the money required in running the home coming from the home's appropriation.

The inventory lists the total value of the property at $206,171. This includes the insured values of the buildings housing residents, placed at $150,171, and of farm buildings, placed at $20,000, while the insured value of the equipment for both is $18,000. Included was an estimated value of livestock placed at $10,000 and of the land at $20,000.

MIRACULOUS—It's hard to believe 5-year-old Gail Nicoletti is so far on the road to recovery from a 125-foot fall that she can stand up in bed at Greenpoint hospital, New York, and wave to you. Her father threw her over Kosciusko bridge linking Brooklyn and Queens in New York Jan. 7. Her body was crushed, she suffered a fractured skull, internal injuries, loss of speech. Her brother, Arthur, 6, was hurled to his death, and her father followed with a suicide leap. "I'm very good," says Gail.

Death Takes Mrs. Kremer

Mrs. Teresa Kremer, 80, widow of Joseph Kremer, died unexpectedly Sunday night at the Apostolic Christian Home in East Mansfield. Mrs. Kremer apparently had been in good health and her death came unexpectedly. Dr. D. C. Lavender, Richland county coroner, said Mrs. Kremer died as the result of a coronary disease.

Born Jan. 15, 1869, in Austria Hungary, Mrs. Kremer came to Mansfield 44 years ago. She was a member of the Apostolic Christian church.

Surviving are one son, Ben W. Kremer of Mansfield; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild, four step-daughters, Miss Theresa and Miss Lena Kremer of Mansfield, Mrs. Russell Brewer of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman of Crestline; and two stepsons, Joseph Kremer of New York city and William Kremer of Texas.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p. m. Tuesday, conducted by the Apostolic Christian church at the Wappner funeral home. Burial will be in the Lantz cemetery.

Audiometers Bought For County Schools

The Mansfield Exchange and Co-Operative clubs today donated two audiometers to the Mansfield-Richland county health department to be used in a hearing conservation program.

An audiometer is an electronic device for determining the accuracy of a person's hearing.

Nurses in the health department have been trained by Dr. Carl M. Quick and Dr. Edward H. Beilstein in the use of the machine.

The hearing conservation committee, composed of city-county health officials, school officials, P-TA representatives, the medical profession, and delegates from the Co-Operative and Exchange clubs, will meet this week to decide when and where the audiometers will be used first.

Tentative plans call for the machines to be used first on third grade students throughout the city and county school systems.

The "hearing testers," donated by the two clubs, are of the portable type and will be taken directly to the schools to examine the pupils.

The first test to be made is known as a screening test to determine who has perfect hearing and which students have defects. The findings of the first test determine which boys and girls will receive a more exhaustive examination which shows in scientific units just how much hearing loss a person is suffering from.

An Ohio Health department survey disclosed that six per cent of the students in school are suffering from some hearing deficiency. Over half of these boys and girls can be returned to normal hearing ability through medical treatment or the application of hearing aids, it was said.

Elias Named By New Firm

Manages Pump Concern In City

Frank Elias, former merchandise manager with the Barnes Manufacturing company, has been appointed vice president and general manager of the Johnston Aquamatic company, a new Mansfield firm, it was announced today by T. W. Simmons jr., of Los Angeles, president of the company.

Headquarters have been established at 577 North Main street. The company manufactures and distributes domestic water systems, deep and shallow well pumps and similar equipment, Elias said.

Assembling at the plant has been going on for the past several weeks, Elias said. There are five employes at the local plant and 25 field men throughout the country, he said.

Later, as the company increases its manufacture and distribution, it expects to add more personnel.

For the past five years, Elias had been with the Barnes company and prior to that was affiliated for several years with the Westinghouse company here. He is chairman of the Red Cross chapter of Richland county and active in civic affairs.

Hoover Flays Sprawling

Urges Truman To Hold Reins

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Hoover commission today urged a top-to-bottom overhauling of the State department to remove "flaws" in the handling of the nation's foreign relations.

The commission laid down a list of 22 recommendations in a report which said the reins over this country's dealings abroad—now spread out all over the government—should be concentrated squarely in President Truman's hands.

While some of the group's suggestions were directed to Congress, most were aimed straight at the State department. That agency, the commission declared, has fallen to "low esteem" with lawmakers, the press, the public and many of its own officials.

The main reason for this, the report said, is the department's postwar work overload.

The 12-man bi-partisan commission on government organization is headed by Former President Herbert Hoover.

As vice-chairman, Secretary of State Acheson helped draft the recommendations for improving the department he came to head.

LISTS PROPOSALS

Those proposals included:

1. Letting the department drop such operating functions as handling passport visas, munitions control, aviation and shipping, so it can concentrate on policy matters.

2. Providing the secretary with a larger top-level staff to help lift the "intolerable burden" he and his Undersecretary bear. There should be two new deputy undersecretaries, eight assistant secretaries instead of six, and a general reshuffling of functions, the report said.

3. Building up a team of expert negotiators to represent the United States at international conferences — an arrangement already started with the appointment of Philip C. Jessup as a special ambassador. The top officials, the commission said, "are needed in Washington."

4. Gradual merging of the foreign service and regular State department establishment into a single foreign affairs service, with all employes obligated to serve either at home or overseas.

5. Giving such responsibility to ambassadors and ministers abroad that there could be no conflict with other American representatives on the scene.

Along with these recommendations, the group turned thumbs down for the present on any move to transfer the military governments of Europe and Japan to civilian control.

The commission submitted its recommendations without any estimate of possible immediate savings, noting that postwar readjustments already have cut down State department personnel by 26 per cent.

Hints Cardinal Drugged By Reds

VATICAN CITY — (AP) — Pope Pius XII told 250,000 cheering Italians yesterday the imprisonment of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in communist-ruled Hungary was religious "persecution" by a "totalitarian and anti-religious" government.

He hinted strongly that the Hungarian government, by some secret means, had wrung from Cardinal Mindszenty a confession of crimes of which the primate was innocent.

Fog Lights, Coat Stolen

Theft of a basketball, fog lights and a woman's fur coat were reported to police yesterday.

Fred Miller jr., 55 Glenwood boulevard, reported that a basketball was taken from the rear of his home and that a basketball hoop fastened to the garage, were stolen from his home last Thursday night.

Charles Duff, 289 Euclid avenue, told police he discovered his fog lights missing from his auto yesterday. Duff said he believed the lights were stolen while the car was parked in front of an East Fifth street service station last Tuesday night.

Theft of a fur coat, valued at $75, from the front room at 261 North Main street, was reported to police by Miss Rosie Stevens. Miss Stevens said she came home Wednesday and placed the coat on the davenport and then went to the rear of the house. The coat was gone when she returend an hour later, she said. The front door at the home reportedly was unlocked.

Getting Mad Costs Girl $50 and Costs

It cost Miss Edna Sprague, 18, 217 North Diamond street, $50 and costs to get angry in a Park avenue east tavern.

Miss Sprague objected to an order to leave the Subway Inn, 238 Park avenue east, and proceeded to smash a pie case and a dollar's worth of pies and damage a table, evidence in municipal court showed today. She used a drinking fountain spigot as a weapon.

Judge H. H. Schettler fined her $50 and costs for malicious destruction of property, suspending $30 of the fine on the condition that she pay for damage she caused at the tavern.

Waitress Edna Clark said she asked Miss Sprague to leave because she objected to the language she was using.
